About CL King & Associates

CL King & Associates, Inc. was founded in 1972 by Candace King Weir as an independent research boutique firmly committed to providing value-oriented research and analysis of investment opportunities exclusively for institutional investors. CL King seeks to "Discover the Uncovered" by actively searching for underfollowed, unknown companies; more than 40% of the companies covered by the firm are followed by five or fewer sell-side analysts. The firm is a self-clearing registered broker/dealer and in addition to researching unique investment ideas, offers extensive equity and fixed income market-making and trading as well as financial advisory, asset management and related corporate services for corporations and institutional investors. CL King is a member of FINRA and SIPC.
