

Kelly Law Registry Receives DuPont Legal's 2008 Challenge Award

TROY, Mich. (July 15, 2009) - Kelly Law Registry, the legal staffing business unit of Kelly Services, today announced it has received DuPont Legal's 2008 "Challenge Award" for providing outstanding and cost-efficient legal services. Through its proactive account management, Kelly Law Registry saved DuPont more than $5 million in legal services in 2008. Kelly Law Registry is DuPont Legal's exclusive supplier of temporary legal staffing.

"As one of a select number of service providers receiving this year's award, Kelly Law Registry has distinguished itself as one of the best among an already elite group of DuPont Primary Service Providers," said Thomas L. Sager, DuPont's senior vice president and general counsel. "Kelly Law Registry is deserving of recognition for its outstanding legal work, its involvement in and support of the DuPont Legal initiatives, and its adherence to the highest ideals of the DuPont Legal Model," he said.

"We are proud to be among the service providers chosen to receive this esteemed award," said Gary Buckland, vice president of Kelly Law Registry. "We value our long-term partnership with DuPont Legal and are dedicated to providing the highest quality legal workforce solutions and outstanding service."

The DuPont Legal Model is a comprehensive and integrated process that takes a business-focused and results-oriented approach to the delivery of legal services, and helps law firms and corporate law departments improve the quality, cost and efficiency of legal services. DuPont designed the "Challenge Award" in 1996 to acknowledge the accomplishments of its outside law firms and service providers in supporting the DuPont Legal Model.
