The release of Till Vodka occurred this past spring in the states of Kansas and Missouri, with plans to further broaden its availability on a regional basis.

"Till Vodka is a brand that represents the timeless and aspirational values long associated with the region that embodies them," said MGP president and CEO Gus Griffin. "It is a product that captures the hard work and essence of the people involved in making it, and reflects the pride they take in doing their best."

Griffin added, "Made using the finest quality Kansas wheat, grown by hardworking Kansas farmers, Till Vodka represents the passion, hard work and honest values of the heartland from which it comes. Distilled by the proud men and women of Atchison, Kansas, the result is a uniquely smooth premium vodka."

Since its market introduction, Till Vodka has already received five prestigious awards for outstanding quality and taste. These include silver medals from the San Francisco World Spirits Competition, the New York World Wine and Spirits Competition, the San Diego Spirits Festival, and the Sommelier Challenge™ International Wine and Spirits Competition, as well as the BevStar Gold Award from Beverage World magazine.
