Motorcar Parts of America Receives Lone Star Award From Aftermarket Auto Parts Alliance

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 13, 2016 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Motorcar Parts of America, Inc. (Nasdaq:MPAA) today announced it received the Aftermarket Auto Parts Alliance's Lone Star Award at the organization's recent 2016 shareholder meeting held in Miami, Florida.

The Lone Star is an annual award in recognition of exceptional partnership and service by an aftermarket automotive parts supplier.

"Customer service is a daily point of focus throughout our company, and we are gratified to be recognized by this premier automotive organization for our industry-leading excellence in category management. We look forward to continued success and opportunities to support the Aftermarket Auto Parts Alliance and its shareholders," said Selwyn Joffe, chairman, president and chief executive officer.

Aftermarket Auto Parts Alliance is comprised of more than 50 independent Auto Value and Bumper to Bumper shareholders. As the source for quality parts and service for over 2,200 parts stores and some 3,300 certified service centers worldwide, Auto Value and Bumper to Bumper are proud to respond to the individual needs of each customer and provide unequalled products and service.
