This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of MicroStrategy Incorporated (the "Company") for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the "Annual Meeting") to be held on Monday, July 16, 2001 at the Marriott Dulles Airport, 45020 Aviation Drive, Dulles, Virginia 20166 at 9:00 a.m., local time, and at any adjournment of the Annual Meeting. All executed proxies will be voted in accordance with the stockholders' instructions, and if no choice is specified, executed proxies will be voted in favor of the matters set forth in the accompanying Notice of Meeting. Any proxy may be revoked by a stockholder at any time before its exercise by delivery of written revocation or a subsequently dated proxy to the Secretary of the Company or by voting in person at the Annual Meeting.

On May 17, 2001, the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting (the "Record Date"), there were outstanding and entitled to vote an aggregate of 31,155,338 shares of Class A Common Stock of the Company, par value $0.001 per share ("Class A Common Stock"), and an aggregate of 50,975,642 shares of Class B Common Stock of the Company, par value $0.001 per share ("Class B Common Stock," and together with the Class A Common Stock, the "Common Stock"). The Company's Annual Report to Stockholders for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2000 ("Fiscal Year 2000") is being mailed to stockholders, along with these proxy materials, on or about June 28, 2001.

Votes Required

The holders of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the shares of Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. Shares of Common Stock represented in person or by proxy (including shares which abstain or do not vote with respect to one or more of the matters presented for stockholder approval) will be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the Annual Meeting.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a plurality of the votes cast by the holders of Common Stock voting on the matter is required for the election of directors. For each other matter voted upon at the Annual Meeting, the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by the holders of Common Stock voting on the matter is required for approval.

Shares which abstain from voting as to a particular matter, and shares held in "street name" by brokers or nominees who indicate on their proxies that they do not have discretionary authority to vote such shares as to a particular matter, will not be counted as votes in favor of such matter, and will also not be counted as shares voting on such matter. Accordingly, abstentions and "broker non-votes" will have no effect on the voting on matters that come before the Annual Meeting.

Involvement in Certain Legal Proceedings

On December 14, 2000, Mr. Saylor and Mr. Bansal each entered into a settlement with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") in connection with the Company's restatement of its financial results for 1999, 1998 and 1997. In the settlement, each of Mr. Saylor and Mr. Bansal consented, without admitting or denying the allegations in the SEC's complaint, to the entry of a judgment enjoining him from violating the antifraud and recordkeeping provisions of the federal securities laws and ordering him to pay a civil penalty and disgorge certain profits.

Board and Committee Meetings

The Company has a standing Audit Committee of the Board of Directors, which provides the opportunity for direct contact between the Company's independent auditors and the Board of Directors. The Audit Committee met ten times during Fiscal Year 2000. During Fiscal Year 2000 and until June 2001, the Audit Committee members were Mr. Ingari and Mr. Terkowitz. In June 2001, Mr. Fowler and Mr. Ross were appointed to the Audit Committee and Mr. Ingari discontinued his committee membership. The current members of the Audit Committee are Mr. Fowler, Mr. Ross and Mr. Terkowitz.

The Company has a standing Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, which makes compensation decisions regarding the officers of the Company and provides recommendations to the Board of Directors regarding compensation programs of the Company. The Compensation Committee met once during Fiscal Year 2000. The current members of the Compensation Committee are Mr. Terkowitz and Mr. Ingari.

The Board of Directors met thirteen times during Fiscal Year 2000. Each director attended at least 75% of the number of Board of Directors meetings and the number of meetings held by all committees on which he then served.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), requires the Company's directors, executive officers and holders of more than 10% of the Company's Class A Common Stock to file with the SEC initial reports of ownership of the Company's Class A Common Stock and other equity securities on a Form 3 and reports of changes in such ownership on a Form 4 or Form 5. Officers, directors and holders of 10% of the Company's Class A Common Stock are required by SEC regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. To the Company's knowledge, based solely on a review of the Company's records, all Section 16(a) filing requirements were satisfied with respect to Fiscal Year 2000 except that (i) one Form 4 that was timely filed by Michael J. Saylor to report a series of gift transactions included four share conversions by Mr. Saylor that were reportable in two prior months in connection with those gift transactions, and (ii) one Form 4 filed by Stephen S. Trundle included a sale of shares by his spouse that was inadvertently omitted from a prior reporting period.

Directors' Compensation

Directors do not receive any fees or other cash compensation for serving on the Company's Board of Directors or any committee thereof. Directors of the Company who are not employees of the Company or any subsidiary ("Outside Directors") are entitled to receive options to purchase shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock.

In 2000, options for 120,000 shares of Class A Common Stock were granted to Outside Directors under the 1997 Director Option Plan. Subsequent to 2000, the Company will grant options to Outside Directors under the 1999 Stock Option Plan. Pursuant to this plan, Outside Directors are granted options on the following terms: (i) each new Outside Director of the Company is granted an option to purchase 100,000 shares of Class A Common Stock upon his or her initial election or appointment to the Board of Directors ("First Options") and (ii) each Outside Director is granted an option to purchase 30,000 shares of Class A Common Stock on the day immediately following each annual meeting of stockholders ("Subsequent Options"). Each option granted to an Outside Director under the 1999 Stock Option Plan has an exercise price equal to the last reported sale price of Class A Common Stock as reported on the Nasdaq National Market for the most recent trading day prior to the date of grant. First Options granted under the 1999 Stock Option Plan become exercisable in equal annual installments over a five-year period and Subsequent Options are exercisable in full upon grant. In the event of a merger of the Company with or into another corporation or another qualifying acquisition event, each option will be assumed or an equivalent option will be substituted by the successor corporation. If the successor corporation does not assume outstanding options or such options are not otherwise exchanged, the exercisability of all outstanding options will accelerate.

Executive Compensation

The compensation information set forth below relates to compensation paid by the Company to its Chief Executive Officer, the Company's four other most highly compensated executive officers who were serving as executive officers of the Company as of December 31, 2000, and the two other most highly compensated executive officers who served as executive officers during the Fiscal Year 2000, but who were not serving as executive officers at the end of Fiscal Year 2000 (collectively, the "Named Executive Officers").

Option awards relating to the Class A Common Stock of Strategy.com Incorporated, a majority-owned subsidiary of the Company ("Strategy.com"), are designated in the tables set forth below by the term "SDC." Unless so designated, all option information set forth below refers to option awards relating to the Class A Common Stock of the Company.

(1) These options generally vest over a five-year period and expire on the tenth anniversary of the date of grant. SDC options, irrespective of vesting, are not exercisable until the earlier of an underwritten initial public offering of SDC, the closing of an acquisition transaction resulting in a change of control of SDC or sixty months from the date of grant.

(2) The exercise price of options of the Company or SDC may be paid in cash or in shares of Class A Common Stock of the Company or SDC, as the case may be, valued at fair market value on the exercise date. All stock options were granted with an exercise price equal to the fair market value of such stock as determined by the Board of Directors of the Company or SDC, as applicable, on the grant date.

(3) The potential realizable value is calculated based on the term of the option at its time of grant (ten years). It is calculated assuming that the fair market value of the Class A Common Stock of the Company or of SDC, as the case may be, on the date of grant appreciates at the indicated annual rate compounded annually for the entire term of the option and that the option is exercised and sold on the last day of its term for the appreciated stock price.

Option Exercises and Holdings

The following table sets forth information concerning each exercise of a stock option during Fiscal Year 2000 by each of the Named Executive Officers and the number and value of unexercised options held by each of the Named Executive Officers on December 31, 2000.

(1) Represents the difference between the exercise price and the fair market value of the Class A Common Stock of the Company on the date of exercise.

(2) Value of unexercised options is determined by subtracting the exercise price per share from the fair market value per share for the underlying shares as of December 31, 2000, multiplied by the number of shares underlying the options. The fair market value of the Company's Class A Common Stock is based upon the last reported sale price as reported on the Nasdaq National Market on December 31, 2000 ($9.50 per share). No public market for the shares underlying the SDC options existed as of December 31, 2000, and accordingly no value in excess of the exercise price has been attributed to these options.

Employment Agreements

Employees of the Company, including the Company's executive officers, are generally required to enter into confidentiality agreements prohibiting the employees from disclosing any confidential or proprietary information of the Company. In addition, the agreements generally provide that upon termination, an employee will not provide competitive products or services and will not solicit Company customers and employees for a period of one year. At the time of commencement of employment, the Company's employees also generally sign offer letters specifying certain basic terms and conditions of employment. Otherwise, employees of the Company are generally not subject to written employment agreements.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

As discussed below under "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions," Frank A. Ingari, a director and member of the Compensation Committee of the Company, is a founding stockholder and chairman of the board of directors of Wheelhouse Corporation, which paid the Company approximately $374,000 in 2000 and, in 2001, has paid approximately $21,000 through June 20, 2001, relating to license and support fees and education services under a business alliance agreement between the Company and Wheelhouse. Also, the Company paid Wheelhouse approximately $1,200 in 2000 and, in 2001, has paid approximately $87,000 through June 20, 2001 for consulting services which were unrelated to the business alliance agreement.

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

Michael J. Saylor and Sanju K. Bansal were named as defendants in a class action lawsuit and shareholder derivative action and were subjects of an SEC investigation, discussed under "Involvement in Certain Legal Proceedings" above, relating to the restatement of the Company's financial results for 1999, 1998 and 1997. Mr. Saylor and Mr. Bansal each retained separate legal counsel to defend their individual interests in these legal proceedings. Using a portion of the proceeds that the Company received from insurance in connection with those proceedings, the Company paid the legal fees of such separate counsel in the amounts of $1,009,360 and $334,553 on behalf of Mr. Saylor and Mr. Bansal, respectively, during 2000.

On December 30, 1999, the Company entered into a business alliance agreement with Wheelhouse Corporation, a company for which Frank A. Ingari, a director and member of the Compensation Committee of the Company, is a founding stockholder and chairman of the board of directors. Pursuant to the agreement, Wheelhouse acquired from the Company certain development software and training technology and the right to offer Company products in the marketplace as a sales agent. In addition, Wheelhouse is entitled to a finders fee of 1.5% of the license fees paid to the Company by any company referred to the Company by Wheelhouse. Wheelhouse paid the Company approximately $374,000 in 2000 and, in 2001, has paid approximately $21,000 through June 20, 2001, relating to license and support fees and education services in connection with the development software acquired from the Company under the agreement. Also, the Company paid Wheelhouse approximately $1,200 in 2000 and, in 2001, has paid approximately $87,000 through June 20, 2001 for consulting services which were unrelated to the business alliance agreement.

On December 1, 2000, the Company entered into a series of agreements with CVent, Inc., a company in which Sanju K. Bansal, the vice chairman and chief operating officer of the Company and a director of the Company, holds an equity interest of approximately 10% and is a member of the board of directors. Under these agreements, the Company provides software licenses, consulting services and maintenance services to CVent. In exchange, the Company received (i) a 3% equity interest in CVent on the date of the agreement and is entitled, subject to certain conditions, to an additional 2% equity interest on the first anniversary of the agreement and (ii) the right to receive payments for services provided by the Company under the agreements. The Company received payment from CVent of approximately $242,000 in 2000 and has billed CVent for an additional $188,000 in 2000 and approximately $70,000 through June 20, 2001, in connection with such services. The Company intends to bill CVent an additional $150,000 in 2001 for such services. Also under these agreements, CVent provides certain licenses to the Company, for which CVent billed the Company approximately $75,000 in 2000.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors acts under a written charter first adopted and approved on September 15, 1997 and amended on July 3, 2000. A copy of this charter is attached to this proxy statement as Appendix A. During Fiscal Year 2000 and until June 2001, the members of the Audit Committee were Mr. Ingari and Mr. Terkowitz. In June 2001, Mr. Fowler and Mr. Ross were appointed to the Audit Committee and Mr. Ingari discontinued his committee membership. The current members of the Audit Committee are Mr. Fowler, Mr. Ross and Mr. Terkowitz. The members of the Audit Committee are independent directors, as defined by its charter and the rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market.

The Audit Committee reviewed the Company's audited financial statements for Fiscal Year 2000 and discussed these financial statements with the Company's management. Management is responsible for the Company's internal controls and the financial reporting process. The Company's independent auditors are responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company's financial statements in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and to issue a report on those financial statements. The Audit Committee is responsible for monitoring and overseeing these processes. As appropriate, the Audit Committee reviews and evaluates, and discusses with the Company's management, internal accounting, financial and auditing personnel and the independent auditors, the following:

- . the plan for, and the independent auditors' report on, each audit of the Company's financial statements;
- . the Company's financial disclosure documents, including all financial statements and reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission or sent to shareholders;
- . changes in the Company's accounting practices, principles, controls or methodologies;
- . significant developments or changes in accounting rules applicable to the Company; and
- . the adequacy of the Company's internal controls and accounting, financial and auditing personnel.

The Audit Committee and management have discussed the Company's internal audit approach; the relationship among the Internal Audit Director, the Audit Committee and management; and the Audit Committee's support for internal audit personnel. In addition, through periodic meetings during 2000 and the first quarter of 2001, the Audit Committee discussed the following significant items with management and the Company's independent auditors: material revenue contracts, financing transactions, the restatement of prior period financial results, the Company's restructuring during 2000, development of comprehensive accounting and contracts policy and procedure manuals, and development of an annual internal audit plan in connection with the hiring of an Internal Audit Director.

Management represented to the Audit Committee that the Company's financial statements had been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The Audit Committee also reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements and the matters required by Statement on Auditing Standards 61 (Communication with Audit Committees) with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, the Company's independent auditors. SAS 61 requires the Company's independent auditors to discuss with the Company's Audit Committee, among other things, the following:

- . methods to account for significant unusual transactions;
- . the effect of significant accounting policies in controversial or emerging areas for which there is a lack of authoritative guidance or consensus;
- . the process used by management in formulating particularly sensitive accounting estimates and the basis for the auditors' conclusions regarding the reasonableness of those estimates; and
- . disagreements, if any, with management over the application of accounting principles, the basis for management's accounting estimates and the disclosures in the financial statements.

The Company's independent auditors also provided the Audit Committee with the written disclosures and the letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees). Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 requires auditors to disclose annually in writing all relationships that in the auditor's professional opinion may reasonably be thought to bear on independence, confirm their perceived independence and engage in a discussion of independence. In addition, the Audit Committee discussed with the independent auditors their independence from the Company. The Audit Committee also considered whether the independent auditors' provision of the other, non-audit related services to the Company, which are referred to below under the caption "Independent Auditors Fees and Other Matters", is compatible with maintaining such auditors' independence.

Based on its discussions with management and the Company's independent auditors as well as its review of the representations and information provided by management and the independent auditors, the Audit Committee recommended to the Company's Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2000.

By the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of MicroStrategy Incorporated.

Frank A. Ingari(/1/) Ralph S. Terkowitz

(/1/)Mr. Ingari discontinued his membership on the Audit Committee following the appointment of Messrs. Fowler and Ross to the Audit Committee in June 2001. Messrs. Fowler and Ross did not participate in the preparation of this Audit Committee Report.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

This report addresses the compensation policies of the Company applicable to its executive officers during Fiscal Year 2000. The Company's executive compensation program is administered by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Committee"), which is comprised of two non-employee directors. The Committee is responsible for determining the compensation package of each executive officer, including the Chief Executive Officer.

Executive Compensation Policy

The objectives of the Committee in determining executive compensation are

(i) to recognize and reward exceptional performance by the Company's executives, (ii) to provide incentives for high levels of current and future performance, and (iii) to align the objectives and rewards of Company executives with those of the stockholders of the Company. The Committee believes that an executive compensation program that achieves these objectives will not only properly motivate and compensate the Company's current officers, but will enable the Company to attract other officers that may be needed by the Company in the future. The executive compensation program is implemented through three principal elements--base salary, bonus and stock option grants.

Executive Officer Compensation

In setting base salaries for Fiscal Year 2000, the Committee used a subjective evaluation process considering the performance of the Company, the officer's position, level and scope of responsibility, as well as the recommendations of management with respect to base salary for such executive officer. The Committee also generally sought to set salaries at levels that, in the opinion of the members of the Committee, approximate the salary levels for executives of companies that are comparable to the Company, except in the case of the Chief Executive Officer as described below.

Bonuses are awarded principally on the basis of the Company's performance during the period and on the Committee's assessment of the extent to which the executive officer contributed to the overall performance of the Company or a particular department of the Company for a specific period. In awarding performance-based bonuses for Fiscal Year 2000, the Committee sought to set such bonuses at a level that would provide executive officers eligible to receive such bonuses with a strong incentive to contribute to the success and profitability of the Company. During Fiscal Year 2000, a total of $217,365 was paid in bonuses to seven executive officers of the Company.

In a further attempt to link compensation to the long-term performance of the Company, stock options to purchase Class A Common Stock of the Company and Class A Common Stock of Strategy.com Incorporated, a majority-owned subsidiary of the Company, were awarded to certain executive officers. In Fiscal Year 2000, option awards were made based principally on the recommendations of management. All of the options to purchase Class A Common Stock of the Company were granted under the 1999 Stock Option Plan in Fiscal Year 2000 with an exercise price that was equal to the fair market value of the Class A Common Stock on the option grant date. All of the options to purchase Class A Common Stock of Strategy.com were granted under the 2000 Stock Option Plan of Strategy.com with an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the Class A Common Stock on the option grant date as determined by the board of directors of Strategy.com. Generally, the options granted to executive officers under the 1999 Stock Option Plan and the Strategy.com 2000 Stock Option Plan vest ratably over a four to five-year period; provided, however, that Strategy.com options, irrespective of vesting, are not exercisable until the earlier of an underwritten initial public offering of Strategy.com, the closing of an acquisition transaction resulting in a change of control of Strategy.com or sixty months from the date of grant. During Fiscal Year 2000, options to purchase an aggregate of 900,661 shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock and 425,000 shares of Strategy.com's Class A Common Stock were granted to seven executive officers of the Company.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

The Committee believes that the base salary and bonus paid to Mr. Saylor in Fiscal Year 2000 were justified in light of the significant and material contributions of Mr. Saylor to the day-to-day business operations of the Company and to the implementation of several strategic initiatives, including completion of additional Company financing transactions, a corporate restructuring to better align the Company's costs with its revenues, an equity financing of Strategy.com in 2000 and the roll out of the MicroStrategy 7 software platform. The Committee did not make any stock option or other stock-based incentive awards to Mr. Saylor during Fiscal Year 2000. In the view of the Committee, Mr. Saylor's base salary and bonus are below the base salary and bonuses generally awarded by comparable companies to their chief executive officers. The Committee determined that, given Mr. Saylor's substantial beneficial ownership of the Company's Common Stock, his long-term interests in the performance and profitability of the Company are aligned with those of other stockholders and, accordingly, no additional financial or stock-based incentives were warranted.

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, generally disallows a tax deduction to public companies for compensation over $1 million paid to its chief executive officer and its four other most highly compensated executive officers. However, qualifying performance-based compensation will not be subject to the deduction limit if certain requirements are met. The Committee takes into account, to the extent it believes appropriate, the limitations on the deductibility of executive compensation imposed by Section 162(m) in determining compensation levels and practices.

By the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of MicroStrategy Incorporated.

PROPOSAL 2

TO APPROVE THE AMENDED AND RESTATED 1999 STOCK OPTION PLAN TO INCREASE THE NUMBER OF SHARES OF CLASS A COMMON STOCK RESERVED FOR ISSUANCE UNDER THE PLAN FROM 11,000,000 TO 23,500,000 SHARES.

Introduction

A proposal will be presented at the Annual Meeting that the stockholders approve the Company's Amended and Restated 1999 Stock Option Plan (the "1999 Plan") to increase the number of shares of Class A Common Stock reserved for issuance under the plan from 11,000,000 to 23,500,000 shares (subject to a proportionate adjustment for certain changes in the Company's capitalization, such as a stock split). The proposed increase in the number of shares available for grant under the 1999 Plan requires the approval by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by the holders of Common Stock present, or represented, and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting.

As of April 20, 2001, the Company had granted options to purchase 17,046,204 shares of Class A Common Stock under the 1999 Plan. Of such option grants, options for 10,577,329 shares were made subject to stockholder approval of the increase in the number of shares available under the 1999 Plan. On December 21, 2000 and April 17, 2001, the Board of Directors adopted, subject to stockholder approval, the proposed aggregate increase in the number of shares available for issuance under the 1999 Plan to ensure that the Company will have a sufficient number of shares of Class A Common Stock available under the 1999 Plan to continue to provide option grants to attract, retain and motivate personnel.

Description of the 1999 Plan

The following is a brief summary of the 1999 Plan. The following summary is qualified in its entirety by the 1999 Plan.

Types of Awards

The 1999 Plan provides for the grant of incentive stock options intended to qualify as such under Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), and non-statutory stock options (collectively, "Awards").

Incentive Stock Options and Non-statutory Stock Options.

Optionees receive the right to purchase a specified number of shares of Class A Common Stock at a specified option price and subject to such other terms and conditions as are specified in connection with the option grant. Options may be granted at an exercise price which may be less than, equal to or greater than 100% of the fair market value of the Class A Common Stock on the date of grant. Under present law, however, incentive stock options and options intended to qualify as performance-based compensation under Section 162(m) of the Code may not be granted at an exercise price less than the fair market value of the Class A Common Stock on the date of grant (or less than 110% of the fair market value in the case of incentive stock options granted to optionees holding more than 10% of the total combined voting power of the Company or of any parent or subsidiary corporation). The 1999 Plan permits the following forms of payment of the exercise price of options: (i) payment by cash, check, or in connection with a "cashless exercise" through a broker, (ii) surrender to the Company of shares of Class A Common Stock, (iii) delivery to the Company of a promissory note, or (iv) by any other lawful means.

Eligibility to Receive Awards

Officers, employees, directors, consultants and advisors (and any individuals who have accepted an offer of employment) of the Company and its subsidiaries are eligible to be granted Awards under the 1999 Plan. Under present law, however, incentive stock options may only be granted to employees of the Company and its subsidiaries. The maximum number of shares with respect to which Awards may be granted to any participant under the 1999 Plan is 1,000,000 shares per calendar year.

Plan Benefits

As of April 20, 2001, approximately 1,404 persons were eligible to receive Awards under the 1999 Plan, including the Company's five executive officers. The granting of Awards under the 1999 Plan is discretionary, and the Company cannot now determine the number or type of Awards to be granted in the future to any particular person or group. On April 20, 2001, the last reported sale price of the Company's Class A Common Stock on the Nasdaq National Market was $5.64.

Administration

The 1999 Plan is administered by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors has the authority to adopt, amend and repeal the administrative rules, guidelines and practices relating to the 1999 Plan and to interpret the provisions of the 1999 Plan. Pursuant to the terms of the 1999 Plan, the Board of Directors may delegate authority under the 1999 Plan to one or more committees of the Board of Directors, and subject to certain limitations, to one or more executive officers of the Company. The Board of Directors has authorized the Compensation Committee to administer certain aspects of the 1999 Plan, including the granting of options to executive officers, and has also authorized an Option Committee of the Board of Directors, consisting of Mr. Saylor, to grant options subject to certain limitations set by the Board of Directors. Subject to any applicable limitations contained in the 1999 Plan, the Board of Directors, the Compensation Committee, the Option Committee, or any other committee or executive officer to whom the Board of Directors delegates authority, as the case may be, selects the recipients of Awards and determines (i) the number of shares of Class A Common Stock covered by options and the dates upon which such options become exercisable, (ii) the exercise price of options and (iii) the duration of options.

The Board of Directors is required to make appropriate adjustments in connection with the 1999 Plan and any outstanding Awards to reflect stock dividends, stock splits and certain other events. In the event of a merger or other Acquisition Event (as defined in the 1999 Plan), the Board of Directors must provide for outstanding options to be assumed, or substituted for, by the acquiring or succeeding corporation. In the event that the acquiring or succeeding corporation does not agree to assume, or substitute for, such options, the exercisability of all outstanding options will accelerate. In certain circumstances, the Board of Directors may also provide for a cash out of the value of any outstanding options. If any Award expires or is terminated, surrendered, canceled or forfeited, the unused shares of Class A Common Stock covered by such Award will again be available for grant under the 1999 Plan subject, however, to any limitations under the Code.

Amendment or Termination

No Award may be made under the 1999 Plan on or after April 21, 2009, but Awards previously granted may extend beyond that date. The Board of Directors may at any time amend, suspend or terminate the 1999 Plan, except that no Award designated as subject to Section 162(m) of the Code by the Board of Directors after the date of such amendment shall become exercisable, realizable or vested (to the extent such amendment was required to grant such Award) unless and until such amendment shall have been approved by the Company's stockholders.

Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following is a summary of the United States federal income tax consequences that generally will arise with respect to Awards granted under the 1999 Plan and with respect to the sale of Class A Common Stock acquired under the 1999 Plan. This summary is based on the federal tax laws in effect as of the date of this proxy statement. Changes to the laws could alter the tax consequences described below.

Incentive Stock Options

In general, a participant will not recognize taxable income upon the grant or exercise of an incentive stock option. Instead, a participant will recognize taxable income with respect to an incentive stock option only upon the sale of Class A Common Stock acquired through the exercise of the option ("ISO Stock"). The exercise of an incentive stock option, however, may subject the participant to the alternative minimum tax.

Generally, the tax consequences of selling ISO Stock will vary with the length of time that the participant has owned the ISO Stock at the time it is sold. If the participant sells ISO Stock after having owned it for more than two years from the date the option was granted (the "Grant Date") and one year from the date the option was exercised (the "Exercise Date"), then the participant will recognize long-term capital gain in an amount equal to the excess of the sale price of the ISO Stock over the exercise price.

If the participant sells ISO Stock for more than the exercise price prior to having owned it for more than two years from the Grant Date and one year from the Exercise Date (a "Disqualifying Disposition"), then all or a portion of the gain recognized by the participant will be ordinary compensation income and the remaining gain, if any, will be a capital gain. This capital gain will be a long-term capital gain if the participant has held the ISO Stock for more than one year prior to the date of sale.

If a participant sells ISO Stock for less than the exercise price, then the participant will recognize capital loss in an amount equal to the excess of the exercise price over the sale price of the ISO Stock. This capital loss will be a long-term capital loss if the participant has held the ISO Stock for more than one year prior to the date of sale.

Non-statutory Stock Options

As in the case of an incentive stock option, a participant will not recognize taxable income upon the grant of a non-statutory stock option. Unlike the case of an incentive stock option, however, a participant who exercises a non-statutory stock option generally will recognize ordinary compensation income in an amount equal to the excess of the fair market value of the Class A Common Stock acquired through the exercise of the option ("NSO Stock") on the Exercise Date over the exercise price.

With respect to any NSO Stock, a participant will have a tax basis equal to the exercise price plus any income recognized upon the exercise of the option. Upon selling NSO Stock, a participant generally will recognize capital gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between the sale price of the NSO Stock and the participant's tax basis in the NSO Stock. This capital gain or loss will be a long-term gain or loss if the participant has held the NSO Stock for more than one year prior to the date of the sale.

Tax Consequences to the Company

The grant of an Award under the 1999 Plan generally will have no tax consequences to the Company. Moreover, in general, neither the exercise of an incentive stock option nor the sale of any Class A Common Stock acquired under the 1999 Plan will have any tax consequences to the Company. However, the Company generally will be entitled to a business-expense deduction with respect to any ordinary compensation income recognized by a participant under the 1999 Plan, including as a result of the exercise of a non-statutory stock option or a Disqualifying Disposition. Any such deduction will be subject to the limitations of Section 162(m) of the Code.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" THE PROPOSED AMENDED AND RESTATED 1999 STOCK OPTION PLAN.

PROPOSAL 3

TO APPROVE THE AMENDED AND RESTATED 1997 STOCK OPTION PLAN FOR FRENCH EMPLOYEES TO INCREASE THE NUMBER OF SHARES OF CLASS A COMMON STOCK RESERVED FOR ISSUANCE UNDER THE PLAN FROM 600,000 TO 800,000 SHARES.

Introduction

A proposal will be presented at the Annual Meeting that the stockholders approve the Company's Amended and Restated 1997 Stock Option Plan for French Employees (the "1997 French Plan") to increase the number of shares of Class A Common Stock reserved for issuance under the plan from 600,000 to 800,000 shares (subject to a proportionate adjustment for certain changes in the Company's capitalization, such as a stock split). The proposed increase in the number of shares available for grant under the 1997 French Plan requires the approval by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by the holders of Common Stock present, or represented, and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting.

As of April 20, 2001, options to purchase 304,486 shares of the 600,000 shares currently authorized under the 1997 French Plan were outstanding. On April 17, 2001, the Board of Directors adopted, subject to stockholder approval, the proposed increase in the number of shares available for issuance under the 1997 French Plan to ensure that the Company will have a sufficient number of shares of Class A Common Stock available under the 1997 French Plan to continue to provide option grants to attract, retain and motivate French personnel.

Description of the 1997 French Plan

The following is a brief summary of the 1997 French Plan. The following summary is qualified in its entirety by the 1997 French Plan.

The 1997 French Plan provides for the grant to employees of a subsidiary of the Company located in the Republic of France of options to purchase up to 800,000 shares of Class A Common Stock, subject to stockholder approval. The Board of Directors, as the administrator of the 1997 French Plan, has the absolute discretion to determine the level of and terms and conditions of stock option awards consistent with the 1997 French Plan. Pursuant to the terms of the 1997 French Plan, the Board of Directors may delegate authority under the 1997 French Plan to one or more committees of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors has authorized the Compensation Committee to administer certain aspects of the 1997 French Plan, including the granting of options to executive officers, and has also authorized an Option Committee of the Board of Directors, consisting of Mr. Saylor, to grant options, subject to certain limitations set by the Board of Directors. The 1997 French Plan allows for the grant of options which are exercisable at not less than 100% of the fair market value of the Class A Common Stock on the date of grant.

Awards Under the 1997 French Plan

The 1997 French Plan provides that the Administrator (as defined below under "Administration") may determine which employees are granted options to purchase Class A Common Stock. The Administrator may also determine the number of shares to be subject to, and the terms and conditions of, such options consistent with the 1997 French Plan. In addition, the Administrator may impose such conditions on the grant of such options as it deems appropriate.

Each option is evidenced by a written stock option agreement executed by the Company and the optionee. At the time an option is granted, the Administrator will determine the terms and conditions to be satisfied before shares shall be deemed vested, as well as the dates on which the option shall be exercisable.

Payment for Shares

Options that are vested may be exercised in whole or in part, but an option may not be exercised for a fraction of a share. The Administrator determines the acceptable form of consideration for exercising an option, including the method of payment. Such consideration may consist of (i) cash or check (denominated in U.S. dollars); (ii) wire transfer (denominated in U.S. dollars); (iii) consideration received by the Company under a cashless exercise program; or (iv) any combination of the foregoing methods of payment.

Eligibility to Receive Awards

Options under the 1997 French Plan may be granted only to salaried employees of the Company's French subsidiary who do not own more than 10% of the voting power of all classes of stock of the Company, or any parent or subsidiary, and who are residents of the Republic of France.

Plan Benefits

As of April 20, 2001, approximately 16 persons were eligible to receive option grants under the 1997 French Plan. The granting of options under the 1997 French Plan is discretionary and the Company cannot now determine the number or value of options to be granted in the future to any particular person or group. On April 20, 2001, the last reported sales price of the Company's Class A Common Stock on the Nasdaq National Market was $5.64.

Administration

The 1997 French Plan is administered by the Board of Directors, which may delegate its decision making responsibility with respect to the 1997 French Plan to a committee (the Board of Directors or such committee thereof being the "Administrator"). The Board of Directors has authorized the Compensation Committee to administer certain aspects of the 1997 French Plan, including the granting of options to executive officers, and has also authorized an Option Committee of the Board of Directors, consisting of Mr. Saylor, to grant options, subject to certain limitations set by the Board of Directors. Under the 1997 French Plan, the Administrator has the power to interpret the 1997 French Plan and the options, and to adopt such rules for the administration, interpretation and application of the 1997 French Plan as are consistent with the 1997 French Plan.

The 1997 French Plan provides for appropriate adjustments in the number and kind of shares subject to the 1997 French Plan and to outstanding grants thereunder in the event that the outstanding shares of stock subject to the options are changed into or exchanged for a different number or kind of shares of the Company or securities of the Company by reason of a merger, consolidation, stock split, stock dividend or certain other types of recapitalizations or combination of shares.

Options to acquire Class A Common Stock granted under the 1997 French Plan may provide for termination of the options upon the liquidation or dissolution of the Company. In the event of a merger of the Company with or into another corporation, the sale of substantially all of the assets of the Company or a "change in control" (as defined in the 1997 French Plan), each outstanding option shall be assumed or an equivalent option substituted by the successor corporation. In the event that the successor corporation does not agree to assume the option or to substitute an equivalent option, the option shall be deemed exercisable to the extent of the greater of (i) 40% of the number of shares subject to the option or (ii) the number of shares then vested immediately prior to the occurrence of the "change of control."

No option granted under the 1997 French Plan may be assigned or transferred by the optionee, except by will or the laws of intestate succession. During the lifetime of the holder of any option, the option may be exercised only by the holder.

Amendment and Termination

The 1997 French Plan may be wholly or partially amended or otherwise modified, suspended or terminated at any time by the Administrator. The Company is required to obtain stockholder approval of any amendment to the extent necessary or desirable to comply with applicable laws. Neither the amendment, suspension, nor termination of the 1997 French Plan will impair any rights or obligations under any previously granted option without the consent of the holder of the option.

Income Tax Consequences

The following is a summary of the United States federal income tax consequences that generally will arise with respect to options granted under the 1997 French Plan and with respect to the sale of Class A Common Stock acquired under the 1997 French Plan. This summary does not provide applicable income tax consequences with respect to option grants or sale of Class A Common Stock acquired under the 1997 French Plan under state or foreign law.

Tax Consequences to Participants

A participant will not recognize taxable income upon the grant of an option under the 1997 French Plan. Nevertheless, a participant generally will recognize ordinary compensation income upon the exercise of the option in an amount equal to the excess of the fair market value of the Class A Common Stock acquired through the exercise of the option (the "Option Stock") on the exercise date over the exercise price.

A participant will have a tax basis for any Option Stock equal to the exercise price plus any income recognized with respect to the option. Upon selling Option Stock, a participant generally will recognize capital gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between the sale price of the Option Stock and the participant's tax basis in the Option Stock. This capital gain or loss will be a long-term capital gain or loss if the participant has held the Option Stock for more than one year prior to the date of the sale and will be a short-term capital gain or loss if the participant has held the Option Stock for a shorter period.

Tax Consequences to the Company

The grant of an option under the 1997 French Plan will have no direct tax consequences to the Company. However, the Company's French subsidiary may be entitled to a business-expense deduction under certain circumstances with respect to any ordinary compensation income recognized by a participant under the 1997 French Plan, and such a deduction may have an indirect effect on the Company's federal income tax situation.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" THE PROPOSED AMENDED AND RESTATED 1997 STOCK OPTION PLAN FOR FRENCH EMPLOYEES.

PROPOSAL 4

TO APPROVE THE ISSUANCE OF SHARES OF CLASS A COMMON STOCK UPON CONVERSION OF SHARES OF SERIES A CONVERTIBLE PREFERRED STOCK AND AS DIVIDENDS THEREON.

On June 19, 2000, the Company issued 12,500 shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, $10,000 stated value per share (the "Series A Preferred Shares"), in a private placement to institutional investors. The net proceeds of the offering, after expenses, were approximately $119.5 million.

On June 14, 2001, the Company and the holders of the Series A Preferred Shares agreed to a refinancing of 11,850 of the Series A Preferred Shares. The Company redeemed or exchanged 11,850 Series A Preferred Shares for shares of Class A Common Stock, Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, Series C Convertible Preferred Stock, Series D Convertible Preferred Stock and Series E Convertible Preferred Stock, leaving 650 Series A Preferred Shares outstanding. In addition, the Company has the option to redeem for cash $1.2 million stated value of its outstanding Series A Preferred Shares, or 120 shares, until December 11, 2001, if such shares have not been converted into Class A Common Stock.

In accordance with Nasdaq Rule 4350, which generally requires stockholder approval for the issuance of securities representing 20% or more of an issuer's outstanding listed securities, and under the terms of the agreement pursuant to which we sold the Series A Preferred Shares, we must solicit stockholder approval of the issuance of shares of Class A Common Stock upon conversion of or in lieu of cash dividends on the Series A Preferred Shares, if the issuance thereof would have otherwise been limited by the rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market. If we obtain stockholder approval, there is no limit on the number of shares that could be issued upon conversion of or in lieu of cash dividends on the Series A Preferred Shares and such issuance of shares of Class A Common Stock will no longer be subject to stockholder approval under Nasdaq Rule 4350. If we do not obtain stockholder approval and, therefore, are not obligated to issue shares representing 20% or more of the number of shares outstanding due to restrictions relating to Nasdaq Rule 4350 that we are otherwise contractually required to issue, we may be required to redeem all or a portion of the outstanding Series A Preferred Shares.

The Company may require the holders to convert their Series A Preferred Shares into shares of Class A Common Stock on June 19, 2002, which date may be extended under some circumstances. If the Company does not require the holders to convert their Series A Preferred Shares, then the Company must redeem them. The holders have the right to convert their Series A Preferred Shares into shares of Class A Common Stock at any time and from time to time, subject to certain limitations on their percentage ownership of outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock. The number of shares of Class A Common stock issuable on conversion of a Series A Preferred Share is determined by dividing the sum of $10,000 plus accrued and unpaid dividends by the applicable conversion price. If conversion occurs at the election of the holder of the Series A Preferred Shares, then the applicable conversion price will be the conversion price then in effect, as it may have been adjusted annually based on the market price of our Class A Common Stock. If the Company requires conversion at the maturity date pursuant to the terms of the Certificate of Designations, Preferences and Rights (the "Series A Certificate of Designations"), the applicable conversion price will be 95% of the average of the dollar volume-weighted average prices of the Class A Common Stock during the 30 consecutive trading days immediately prior to the date the Company requires such conversion.

To the extent the Series A Preferred Shares are converted or dividends on the Series A Preferred Shares are paid in shares of Class A Common Stock rather than cash, a significant number of additional shares of Class A Common Stock may be sold into the market, which could decrease the price of the shares of Class A Common Stock. In that case, the Company could be required to issue an increasingly greater number of shares of Class A Common Stock upon future conversions of the Series A Preferred Shares, sales of which could further depress the price of our Class A Common Stock. If the sale of a large number of shares of Class A Common Stock upon conversion of or payment of dividends in lieu of cash on the Series A Preferred Shares results in a decline in the price of the Class A Common Stock, this event could encourage short sales by the holders or others. Short sales could place further downward pressure on the price of the Class A Common Stock.

The conversion of and the payment of dividends in shares of Class A Common Stock in lieu of cash on the Series A Preferred Shares may result in substantial dilution to the interest of other holders of the Class A Common Stock. Even though no holder may convert its Series A Preferred Shares if upon such conversion such holder, together with its affiliates, would have acquired a number of shares of Class A Common Stock during the 60-day period ending on the date of conversion which, when added to the number of shares of Class A Common Stock held at the beginning of such 60-day period, would exceed 9.99% of our then outstanding Class A Common Stock (excluding, for purposes of such determination, shares of Class A Common Stock issuable upon conversion of Series A Preferred Shares which have not been converted), this restriction does not prevent a holder from selling a substantial number of shares in the market. By periodically selling shares into the market, an individual holder could eventually sell more than 9.99% of the Company's Class A Common Stock while never holding more than 9.99% at any specific time.

The following table illustrates the number of shares of Class A Common Stock the Company would be required to issue upon conversion of (1) the 120 Series A Preferred Shares that may remain outstanding if the Company does not elect to redeem such 120 shares and (2) the 530 Series A Preferred Shares that will remain outstanding, at an assumed conversion price of $33.39 per share of Class A Common Stock as of April 20, 2001, and the resulting percentage of the Company's total shares of Class A Common Stock outstanding after such conversion. The table also illustrates the number of shares of Class A Common Stock the Company would be required to issue assuming (i) increases of 25%, 50%, 75% and 90% in the assumed conversion price and (ii) decreases of 25%, 50%, 75% and 90% in the assumed conversion price.

(1) The number of shares of Class A Common Stock issuable upon conversion and the percentage of outstanding Class A Common Stock after such conversion set forth above do not take into account any shares of Class A Common Stock that may be issuable as dividends on the Series A Preferred Shares. If the dividends on the Series A Preferred Shares are required to be paid in Class A Common Stock for the remaining 120 Series A Preferred Shares from March 31, 2001, the last dividend payment date prior to the date of this proxy statement, to June 19, 2002, the maturity date of such 120 Series A Preferred Shares, assuming a constant dividend conversion price of $5.64, which was the closing sale price of the Class A Common Stock on April 20, 2001, and assuming all 120 Series A Preferred Shares remain outstanding until the maturity date, we would be required to issue an additional 18,158 shares as payment for accrued dividends. If the dividends on the Series A Preferred Shares are required to be paid in Class A Common Stock for the remaining 530 Series A Preferred Shares from March 31, 2001, the last dividend payment date prior to the date of this proxy statement, to June 19, 2002, the maturity date of such 530 Series A Preferred Shares, assuming a constant dividend conversion price of $5.64, which was the closing sale price of the Class A Common Stock on April 20, 2001, and assuming all 530 Series A Preferred Shares remain outstanding until the maturity date, we would be required to issue an additional 80,198 shares as payment for accrued dividends.

(2) Calculated based on 31,146,465 shares of Class A Common Stock and 50,975,624 shares of Class B Common Stock (which is convertible into Class A Common Stock on a one for one basis) issued and outstanding as of April 20, 2001.

The Series A Preferred Shares carry a dividend rate of 7% per annum, payable quarterly or upon conversion or redemption. At the Company's option, the dividend may be paid in cash or shares of Class A Common Stock, subject to satisfaction of certain conditions. If the Company chooses to pay dividends in shares of Class A Common Stock, the number of shares to be issued in payment of the dividend on the Series A Preferred Shares will be equal to the accrued dividends divided by the dividend conversion price. For purposes of such calculation, the dividend conversion price will be equal to 95% of the average of the dollar volume-weighted average prices of a share of Class A Common Stock during the five consecutive trading days immediately preceding the dividend date.

The Series A Preferred Shares mature on June 19, 2002, subject to extension in certain circumstances, at which time the Series A Preferred Shares must either be redeemed or converted at the Company's option. If the Company elects to redeem any Series A Preferred Shares outstanding on June 19, 2002, the amount required to be paid will be equal to the price originally paid for such shares, plus accrued and unpaid dividends. If the Company elects to convert any Series A Preferred Shares outstanding on June 19, 2002, it will be required to issue shares of Class A Common Stock in an amount determined as described above.

If a triggering event, as described in the Series A Certificate of Designations, occurs, the holders of the Series A Preferred Shares will have the right to require the Company to redeem all or a portion of any outstanding Series A Preferred Shares for cash. The redemption price in such a case is the greater of: (1) 125% of the price paid for the Series A Preferred Shares plus accrued dividends; or (2) the product of the number of shares of Class A Common Stock into which the Series A Preferred Stock is convertible multiplied by the closing sale price of a share of Class A Common Stock on the day immediately before the triggering event occurs.

In the event of a merger transaction, a hostile takeover or a sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets, each holder of the Series A Preferred Shares at its option has the right to require the Company to redeem all or a portion of such holder's preferred shares at a price equal to 125% of the price paid for such shares plus accrued dividends.

In the event of the Company's liquidation, the holders of the Series A Preferred Shares will be entitled to a liquidation preference before any amounts are paid to the holders of Class A Common Stock. The liquidation preference is equal to the amount originally paid for the Series A Preferred Shares, or $10,000 per share, plus accrued and unpaid dividends on any outstanding Series A Preferred Shares.

Other than as required by law, the holders of the Series A Preferred Shares have no voting rights except that the consent of holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding Series A Preferred Shares will be required to effect any change in the Company's Certificate of Incorporation or the Series A Certificate of Designations that would change any of the rights of the Series A Preferred Shares or to issue any additional Series A Preferred Shares.

The terms of the Series A Preferred Shares are complex and only briefly summarized in this proxy statement. Stockholders wishing further information concerning the rights, preferences and terms of the Series A Preferred Shares are referred to the full description contained in the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on June 19, 2000 and the exhibits to such report.

In connection with the Company's issuance of the Series A Preferred Shares, the Company filed a registration statement on Form S-3 with the SEC on August 3, 2000, as amended on October 19, 2000 and November 22, 2000. That registration statement covers the resale of the shares of Class A Common Stock that are issuable upon conversion of or in lieu of cash dividends on the Series A Preferred Shares that the holders acquired from the Company in the private placement transaction.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" THE ISSUANCE OF SHARES OF CLASS A COMMON STOCK WITH RESPECT TO THE SERIES A CONVERTIBLE PREFERRED STOCK.

PROPOSAL 5

TO APPROVE THE ISSUANCE OF SHARES OF CLASS A COMMON STOCK (I) UPON EXCHANGE OF SHARES OF SERIES A CONVERTIBLE PREFERRED STOCK AND (II) UPON CONVERSION OF SHARES OF SERIES B CONVERTIBLE PREFERRED STOCK, SERIES C CONVERTIBLE STOCK, SERIES D CONVERTIBLE PREFERRED STOCK AND SERIES E CONVERTIBLE PREFERRED STOCK ISSUED IN EXCHANGE FOR SHARES OF SERIES A CONVERTIBLE PREFERRED STOCK

(INCLUDING ANY SHARES OF CLASS A COMMON STOCK ISSUABLE IN LIEU OF CASH DIVIDENDS THEREON).

On June 19, 2000, the Company issued 12,500 shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, $10,000 stated value per share (the "Series A Preferred Shares"), in a private placement to institutional investors. The net proceeds of the offering, after expenses, were approximately $119.5 million.

On June 14, 2001, the Company and the holders of the Series A Preferred Shares agreed to a refinancing of 11,850 of the Series A Preferred Shares, leaving 650 Series A Preferred Shares outstanding. The Company redeemed or exchanged these 11,850 Series A Preferred Shares as follows:

- . $12.5 million stated value of the Series A Preferred Shares, or 1,250 shares, were redeemed for $12.5 million in cash;
- . $38.75 million stated value of the Series A Preferred Shares, or 3,875 shares, and accrued dividends on all Series A Preferred Shares being exchanged were exchanged for 5,568,466 shares of Class A Common Stock and $16.261 million stated value of Series D Convertible Preferred Stock (the "Series D Preferred Shares") with a fixed conversion price of $5.00 per share;
- . $33.125 million stated value of the Series A Preferred Shares, or 3,312.5 shares, were exchanged for an equivalent stated value of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock (the "Series B Preferred Shares") with a conversion price of $12.50 per share, subject to adjustment at maturity if the Company elects to mandatorily convert these shares into Class A Common Stock;
- . $27.825 million stated value of the Series A Preferred Shares, or 2,782.5 shares, were exchanged for an equivalent stated value of Series C Convertible Preferred Stock (the "Series C Preferred Shares"), with a conversion price of $17.50 per share, subject to adjustment at maturity if the Company elects to mandatorily convert these shares into Class A Common Stock; and
- . $6.3 million stated value of the Series A Preferred Shares, or 630 shares, were exchanged for an equivalent stated value of Series E Convertible Preferred Stock (the "Series E Preferred Shares") with a conversion price per share equal to the average of the volume-weighted average prices of the Class A Common Stock during the ten consecutive trading days immediately preceding December 11, 2001.

As part of the refinancing, the Company has the option to redeem for cash $1.2 million stated value of its outstanding Series A Preferred Shares, or 120 shares, until December 11, 2001, if such shares have not been converted into Class A Common Stock. If the Company does not exercise its option to redeem such 120 shares, an aggregate of 650 Series A Preferred Shares will remain outstanding, assuming none of such shares are converted. These 650 Series A Preferred Shares may be converted by the holders prior to maturity or by the Company at maturity for shares of Class A Common Stock and accrue dividends payable at the Company's option in shares of Class A Common Stock in lieu of cash as described under "Proposal 4."

The Series B Preferred Shares and the Series C Preferred Shares accrue dividends payable in cash or Class A Common Stock. The aggregate number of shares of Class A Common Stock which may be issued as dividends on the Series B Preferred Shares and Series C Preferred Shares are collectively referred to in this proposal as the "Dividend Shares." The Series B Preferred Shares, Series C Preferred Shares and Series D Preferred Shares can be converted into Class A Common Stock by the holder at any time or by the Company three years after the date of issuance. The Series E Preferred Shares can be converted into Class A Common Stock by the holder at any time beginning on December 11, 2001. The aggregate number of shares of Class A Common Stock into which the Series B Preferred Shares, Series C Preferred Shares, Series D Preferred Shares and Series E Preferred Shares may be converted are collectively referred to in this proposal as the "Conversion Shares."

In accordance with Nasdaq Rule 4350, which generally requires stockholder approval for the issuance of securities representing 20% or more of an issuer's outstanding listed securities, and under the terms of the agreements pursuant to which we have redeemed or exchanged the Series A Preferred Shares, we must solicit stockholder approval of the issuance of Class A Common Stock in exchange for Series A Preferred Shares and the issuance of the Conversion Shares and the Dividend Shares, if the issuance of these securities would have otherwise been limited by the rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market. If we obtain stockholder approval, there is no limit on the aggregate number of shares of Class A Common Stock that could be issued upon exchange of Series A Preferred Shares, upon the conversion of the Series B Preferred Shares, Series C Preferred Shares, Series D Preferred Shares and Series E Preferred Shares and in lieu of cash dividends on the Series B Preferred Shares and Series C Preferred Shares. If we do not obtain stockholder approval and, therefore, are not obligated to issue shares representing 20% or more of the number of shares outstanding due to restrictions relating to Nasdaq Rule 4350 that we are otherwise contractually required to issue, we may be required to redeem all or a portion of the Series B Preferred Shares, Series C Preferred Shares, Series D Preferred Shares and Series E Preferred Shares.

The Company may require holders to convert their Series B Preferred Shares and Series C Preferred Shares into shares of Class A Common Stock on the maturity date of June 14, 2004, which date may be extended under some circumstances. If the Company does not require the holders to convert their Series B Preferred Shares or Series C Preferred Shares, then the Company must redeem them. In addition, the holders have the right to convert their Series B Preferred Shares and Series C Preferred Shares into shares of Class A Common Stock at any time and from time to time, subject to certain limitations on their percentage ownership of outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock. The number of shares of Class A Common Stock issuable on conversion of a Series B Preferred Share or Series C Preferred Share is determined by dividing the sum of $10,000 plus any accrued and unpaid dividends by the applicable conversion price per share. If the conversion is at the option of the holder, the applicable conversion price for the Series B Preferred Shares is $12.50 per share and the applicable conversion price of the Series C Preferred Shares is $17.50 per share, each subject to adjustment under certain circumstances. If the Company requires conversion at the maturity date pursuant to the terms of the Certificate of Designations relating to the Series B Preferred Shares and the Certificate of Designations relating to the Series C Preferred Shares, the applicable conversion price will be 95% of the average of the dollar volume-weighted average prices of the Class A Common Stock during the 30 consecutive trading days immediately prior to the date the Company requires such conversion.

The Company is required to convert any Series D Preferred Shares outstanding at the maturity date of June 14, 2004. In addition, the holders have the right to convert their Series D Preferred Shares into shares of Class A Common Stock at any time and from time to time, subject to certain limitations on their percentage ownership of outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock. The Company is required to issue 2,000 shares of Class A Common Stock upon conversion of each Series D Preferred Share.

The Series E Preferred Shares have a maturity date of June 14, 2004 and can be converted into Class A Common Stock by the holder at any time beginning on December 11, 2001, based on a conversion price equal to the average of the volume-weighted average prices of the Class A Common Stock during the ten consecutive trading days immediately preceding December 11, 2001.

To the extent the remaining 650 Series A Preferred Shares, Series B Preferred Shares, Series C Preferred Shares, Series D Preferred Shares or Series E Preferred Shares are converted into Conversion Shares or dividends on the remaining 650 Series A Preferred Shares, Series B Preferred Shares or Series C Preferred Shares are paid in Dividend Shares rather than cash, a significant number of additional shares of Class A Common Stock may be sold into the market, which could decrease the price of the shares of Class A Common Stock. In that case, the Company could be required to issue an increasingly greater aggregate number of shares of Class A Common Stock as Conversion Shares upon future conversions of the Series B Preferred Shares, Series C Preferred Shares, Series D Preferred Shares and Series E Preferred Shares and as Dividend Shares on the Series B Preferred Shares and Series C Preferred Shares, sales of which could further depress the price of our Class A Common Stock. If the sale of a large number of shares of Class A Common Stock upon the issuance of shares of Class A Common Stock as Conversion Shares or as Dividend Shares results in a decline in the price of the Class A Common Stock, this event could encourage short sales by the holders or others. Short sales could place further downward pressure on the price of the Class A Common Stock.

The exchange of the Series A Preferred Shares for Class A Common Stock and the issuance of Conversion Shares or Dividend Shares may result in substantial dilution to the interest of other holders of the Class A Common Stock. Even though no holder may convert its Series A Preferred Shares, Series B Preferred Shares, Series C Preferred Shares, Series D Preferred Shares or Series E Preferred Shares if upon such conversion such holder, together with its affiliates, would have acquired a number of shares of Class A Common Stock during the 60-day period ending on the date of conversion which, when added to the number of shares of Class A Common Stock held at the beginning of such 60- day period, would exceed 9.99% of our then outstanding Class A Common Stock (excluding, for purposes of such determination, shares of Class A Common Stock issuable upon conversion of Series A Preferred Shares, Series B Preferred Shares, Series C Preferred Shares, Series D Preferred Shares and Series E Preferred Shares which have not been converted), this restriction does not prevent a holder from selling a substantial number of shares in the market. By periodically selling shares into the market, an individual holder could eventually sell more than 9.99% of the Company's Class A Common Stock while never holding more than 9.99% at any specific time.

The following table illustrates the number of shares of Class A Common Stock the Company would be required to issue upon conversion of 530 Series A Preferred Shares, an additional 120 Series A Preferred Shares (if such shares are not redeemed by the Company) and all Series B Preferred Shares, Series C Preferred Shares and Series E Preferred Shares issued in connection with the refinancing of the Series A Preferred Shares at (1) the conversion prices of the Series A Preferred Shares, Series B Preferred Shares and Series C Preferred Shares applicable prior to maturity and at an assumed conversion price of $5.64 per share for the Series E Preferred Shares (the closing price of the Class A Common Stock on April 20, 2001) and (2) at the assumed conversion prices of the Series A Preferred Shares, Series B Preferred Shares and Series C Preferred Shares at maturity and at the assumed conversion price of $5.64 per share for the Series E Preferred Shares and assuming increases of 25%, 50% and 75% in such assumed conversion prices and assuming decreases of 25%, 50% and 75% in such assumed conversion prices, and the resulting percentage of the Company's total shares of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock outstanding after such exchange and conversion. The table also illustrates the resulting percentage of the Company's total shares of Class A Common Stock outstanding after issuance by the Company upon exchange of 3,875 Series A Preferred Shares of an aggregate of 5,568,466 shares of Class A Common Stock and 3,252,200 shares of Class A Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Series D Preferred Shares.

(1) The number of shares of Class A Common Stock issuable upon conversion or exchange as set forth in the table above does not include any shares of Class A Common Stock that may be issuable as dividends on the remaining 650 Series A Preferred Shares, the Series B Preferred Shares or the Series C Preferred Shares. If the dividends on the remaining 650 Series A Preferred Shares are required to be paid in Class A Common Stock from March 31, 2001, the last dividend payment date prior to the date of this proxy statement, to June 19, 2002, the maturity date of such 650 Series A Preferred Shares, assuming a constant dividend conversion price of $5.64, which was the closing sale price of the Class A Common Stock on April 20, 2001, and assuming all 650 Series A Preferred Shares remain outstanding until the maturity date, we would be required to issue an additional 98,356 shares as payment for accrued dividends. If we were to pay dividends on the Series B Preferred Shares and Series C Preferred Shares over the three-year term thereof in shares of Class A Common Stock, assuming a constant dividend conversion price of $5.64, which was the closing sale price of the Class A Common Stock on April 20, 2001, and assuming all Series B Preferred Shares and Series C Preferred Shares remain outstanding for the entire three-year term, we would be required to issue an additional 4,052,527 shares of Class A Common Stock in respect of such dividends.

(2) Calculated based on 31,146,465 shares of Class A Common Stock and 50,975,624 shares of Class B Common Stock (which is convertible into Class A Common Stock on a one for one basis) issued and outstanding as of April 20, 2001.

(3) Based upon an assumed conversion price of $5.64, which was the closing sale price of the Class A Common Stock on April 20, 2001.

The Series B Preferred Shares and Series C Preferred Shares carry a dividend rate of 12.5% per annum, payable beginning on the earlier of (a) October 1, 2001 and (b) the later of July 1, 2001 and the date that is 10 days after the date that the registration statement filed with respect to the shares of Class A Common Stock issuable upon conversion of, or payable as dividends on, the Series B Preferred Shares, Series C Preferred Shares, Series D Preferred Shares and Series E Preferred Shares is declared effective by the SEC, and quarterly thereafter or upon conversion or redemption of the Series B Preferred Shares or Series C Preferred Shares. At the Company's option, the dividends on the Series B Preferred Shares and Series C Preferred Shares may be paid in cash or Dividend Shares, subject to satisfaction of certain conditions. If the Company chooses to pay dividends in Dividend Shares, the number of Dividend Shares to be issued will be equal to the accrued dividends divided by the dividend conversion price. For purposes of such calculation, the dividend conversion price will be equal to 95% of the average of the dollar volume-weighted average prices of a share of Class A Common Stock during the five consecutive trading days immediately preceding the dividend date.

The Series B Preferred Shares and Series C Preferred Shares outstanding at the maturity date must either be redeemed or converted at the Company's option. If the Company elects to redeem any Series B Preferred Shares or Series C Preferred Shares outstanding at maturity, the amount required to be paid will be equal to $10,000 per share, plus accrued and unpaid dividends. If the Company elects to convert any Series B Preferred Shares or Series C Preferred Shares outstanding at maturity, it will be required to issue shares of Class A Common Stock as described above.

The Series E Preferred Shares mature on June 14, 2004 and carry a dividend rate of 12.5% until September 12, 2001, 15% from September 13, 2001 until December 11, 2001 and 17.5% thereafter, accruing daily and payable in cash on a quarterly basis. The Company can redeem the Series E Preferred Shares at any time through December 11, 2001, for 105% of the stated value plus accrued and unpaid dividends until October 27, 2001 and for 110% of the stated value plus accrued and unpaid dividends from October 28, 2001 through December 11, 2001. In addition, the holders may require the Company to redeem the Series E Preferred Shares beginning on July 14, 2002 for 120% of the stated value plus accrued and unpaid dividends and may require redemption of the Series E Preferred Shares prior to that date upon specified financing transactions or certain other events. The Company is required to redeem any Series E Preferred Shares outstanding at maturity for $12,000 per share, plus accrued and unpaid dividends.

If a triggering event, as described in the certificates of designations of rights and preferences relating to the Series B Preferred Shares, Series C Preferred Shares, Series D Preferred Shares and Series E Preferred Shares, occurs, the holders of the Series B Preferred Shares, Series C Preferred Shares, Series D Preferred Shares and Series E Preferred Shares will have the right to require the Company to redeem all or a portion of any such outstanding shares for cash. The redemption price in such a case is the greater of: (1) the conversion price of the Series D Preferred Shares, with respect to the Series D Preferred Shares, or 125% of the applicable conversion price for the Series B Preferred Shares, Series C Preferred Shares and Series E Preferred Shares, plus accrued dividends; or (2) the product of the number of shares of Class A Common Stock into which the Series B Preferred Shares, Series C Preferred Shares, Series D Preferred Shares or Series E Preferred Shares are convertible multiplied by the closing sale price of a share of Class A Common Stock on the day immediately before the triggering event occurs.

In the event of a merger, consolidation, sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets or related transaction, each holder of the Series B Preferred Shares, Series C Preferred Shares and Series E Preferred Shares has the right, at its option, to require the Company to redeem all or a portion of such holder's preferred shares at a price equal to 125% of the price paid for such shares plus accrued dividends.

In the event of the Company's liquidation, the holders of the Series B Preferred Shares, Series C Preferred Shares, Series D Preferred Shares and Series E Preferred Shares will be entitled to a liquidation preference before any amounts are paid to the holders of Class A Common Stock. The liquidation preference is equal to $10,000 per share, plus, in the case of the Series B Preferred Shares, Series C Preferred Shares or Series E Preferred Shares accrued and unpaid dividends.

Other than as required by law, the holders of the Series B Preferred Shares, Series C Preferred Shares, Series D Preferred Shares and Series E Preferred Shares have no voting rights except that the consent of holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of each such series of preferred stock will be required to effect any change in the Company's Certificate of Incorporation or the applicable certificate of designations of rights and preferences that would change any of the rights of the shares of such series of preferred stock or to issue any additional shares of such series of preferred stock.

The terms of the exchange of the Series A Preferred Shares for Class A Common Stock, Series B Preferred Shares, Series C Preferred Shares, Series D Preferred Shares and Series E Preferred Shares are complex and only briefly summarized in this proxy statement. Stockholders wishing further information concerning the terms of the exchange of the Series A Preferred Shares and the terms, rights and preferences of the Series B Preferred Shares, Series C Preferred Shares, Series D Preferred Shares and Series E Preferred Shares are referred to the full description contained in the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on June 18, 2001 and the exhibits to such report.

In connection with the Company's redemption and exchange of the Series A Preferred Shares, the Company intends to file a registration statement on Form S-3 with the Securities and Exchange Commission on or about June 26, 2001. That registration statement will cover the resale of the shares of Class A Common Stock that were issued in exchange for Series A Preferred Shares and that are issuable as Conversion Shares and Dividend Shares.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" THE ISSUANCE OF SHARES OF CLASS A COMMON STOCK (I) UPON EXCHANGE OF SHARES OF SERIES A CONVERTIBLE PREFERRED STOCK AND (II) UPON CONVERSION OF OR AS DIVIDENDS ON SHARES OF SERIES B CONVERTIBLE PREFERRED STOCK, SERIES C CONVERTIBLE PREFERRED STOCK, SERIES D CONVERTIBLE PREFERRED STOCK AND SERIES E CONVERTIBLE PREFERRED STOCK.

PROPOSAL 6

TO APPROVE THE ISSUANCE OF SHARES OF CLASS A COMMON STOCK UPON CONVERSION OF 7 1/2% SERIES A UNSECURED NOTES TO BE ISSUED TO CLASS MEMBERS PURSUANT TO THE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AMONG THE COMPANY, CERTAIN OF THE COMPANY'S OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS AND PLAINTIFFS' COUNSEL, APPROVED BY THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA ON APRIL 2, 2001.

From March through May 2000, twenty-five class action complaints were filed in federal courts in various jurisdictions alleging that the Company and certain of its officers and directors violated Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act, Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder, and Section 20(a) and Section 20A of the Exchange Act. These lawsuits were consolidated in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia. On July 7, 2000, the lead plaintiffs filed an amended class action complaint naming the Company, certain of the Company's officers and directors, and PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as defendants. On October 23, 2000, the Company, its officers and directors named as defendants, and plaintiffs' counsel entered into a settlement agreement in the consolidated class action.

Under the settlement agreement, class members will receive: (1) five-year 7 1/2% Series A Unsecured Notes issued by the Company having an original aggregate principal amount of $80.5 million (the "Notes"); (2) 2,777,778 shares of Class A Common Stock; and (3) warrants to purchase 1.9 million shares of Class A Common Stock at an exercise price of $40.00 per share, with the warrants expiring five years from the date they are issued. The settlement was approved by the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia on April 2, 2001 and the period from which an appeal could have been taken has expired. The settlement is subject to various closing conditions.

In accordance with Nasdaq Rule 4350, which generally requires stockholder approval for the issuance of securities representing 20% or more of an issuer's outstanding listed securities, we must solicit stockholder approval of the issuance of shares of our Class A Common Stock upon conversion of the Notes, if the issuance of such shares would have otherwise been limited by the rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market. If we obtain stockholder approval, there is no limit on the amount of shares that could be issued upon conversion of the Notes. If stockholder approval is not obtained, the Company could not convert the Notes at conversion prices which would result in an issuance of shares of its Class A Common Stock representing 20% or more of the amount then outstanding, or the conversion of the Notes under such circumstances would violate Nasdaq Rule 4350 and the Company's Class A Common Stock could be delisted.

The Company, in its sole discretion, may convert all or any of the Notes, in whole or in part, into shares of Class A Common Stock upon giving 30 days prior written notice to the holders of the Notes. The number of shares into which the Notes may be converted is determined by dividing the principal amount and any accrued but unpaid interest by an amount equal to 80% of the dollar-weighted average trading price for all round lot transactions in the Class A Common Stock on the Nasdaq Stock Market for the ten trading days ending two days prior to the date that written notice is provided of the conversion. The conversion of the Notes may result in substantial dilution to the interest of other holders of the Class A Common Stock.

The following table illustrates the number of shares of Class A Common Stock the Company would be required to issue upon conversion of the Notes at an assumed conversion price of the closing sale price of $5.64 per share of the Class A Common Stock on April 20, 2001, and the resulting percentage of the Company's total shares of Class A Common Stock outstanding after such conversion. The table also illustrates the number of shares of Class A Common Stock the Company would be required to issue assuming (i) increases of 25%, 50% and 75% in the assumed conversion price; and (ii) decreases of 25%, 50% and 75% in the assumed conversion price.

Assumed Conversion Price Per Share of Class A Common Stock	Number of Shares of Class A Common Stock Issuable Upon Conversion	Percentage of Common Stock After Conversion (1)
$9.87 (+75%)	12,664,640	13%
$8.46 (+50%)	14,775,414	15%
$7.05 (+25%)	17,730,496	18%
$5.64 (0%)	22,163,121	21%
$4.23 (-25%)	29,550,827	26%
$2.82 (-50%)	44,326,241	35%
$1.41 (-75%)	88,652,482	52%

(1) Calculated based on 31,146,465 shares of Class A Common Stock and 50,975,624 shares of Class B Common Stock (which is convertible into shares of Class A Common Stock on a one for one basis) issued and outstanding as of April 20, 2001.

The Notes accrue interest at a rate of 7.5% per annum beginning on April 2, 2001 and payable semi-annually beginning six months after the date of issuance or upon conversion or redemption. The Notes mature five years from the date of issuance, at which time such Notes that have not been redeemed or converted at the Company's option are payable in full.

The Company may elect to convert the Notes into shares of Class A Common Stock as described above. In addition, the Company may at any time elect to redeem any or all of the Notes, in whole or in part, for cash equal to the outstanding principal plus accrued and unpaid interest. The Company may not reduce the outstanding principal amount of the Notes below 60% of the original outstanding principal amount of such Notes, unless the Company redeems or converts into shares of Class A Common Stock the entire remaining outstanding principal amount of the Notes.

The Company may not enter into a merger, consolidation or a sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets, unless the Company is the surviving entity or the surviving or transferee entity expressly assumes all of the Company's obligations in connection with the Notes and the Indenture dated January 11, 2001 by and between the Company and American Stock Transfer & Trust Company (the "Indenture") by entering into a supplemental indenture.

The holders of the Notes have no rights as stockholders of the Company unless and until such holder's Notes have been converted into shares of Class A Common Stock. Notes will be deemed converted into shares of Class A Common Stock when notice of conversion is mailed in accordance with the Indenture.

The terms of the Notes and the Indenture are complex and only briefly summarized in this proxy statement. Stockholders wishing further information concerning the rights, preferences and terms of the Notes are referred to the Stipulation of Settlement regarding the settlement of the class action lawsuit dated January 11, 2001 filed as an exhibit to the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 2, 2001.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" THE ISSUANCE OF SHARES OF CLASS A COMMON STOCK UPON CONVERSION OF 7 1/2% SERIES A UNSECURED NOTES TO BE ISSUED TO CLASS MEMBERS PURSUANT TO THE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT.
