

Compensation Committee Charter

I. PURPOSE

The purpose of the Compensation Committee (the "Committee") of the Board of Directors of Myriad Genetics, Inc. (the "Company") is:

1. To discharge the responsibilities of the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board of Directors") relating to compensation of the Company's directors and executive officers;
2. To assist the Board of Directors in establishing appropriate incentive compensation and equity-based plans and to administer such plans;
3. To oversee the annual process of evaluation of the performance of the Company's management; and
4. To perform such other duties and responsibilities as enumerated in and consistent with this Charter.

II. COMPOSITION

The Committee shall be comprised of three or more directors as determined by the Board, each of whom shall be independent directors, and free from any relationship that, in the opinion of the Board, would interfere with the exercise of his or her independent judgment as a member of the Committee. Committee members shall qualify as "independent directors" for purposes of the listing standards of The Nasdaq Stock Market, LLC, as such standards may be changed from time to time. To the extent that the Board deems practicable and advisable, all members of the Committee shall also qualify as "non-employee directors" for purposes of Rule 16b-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), and as "outside directors" for purposes of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, as such standards and definitions may be revised or amended from time to time; provided, however, that notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, if not all members of the Committee qualify as non-employee directors, any grant of equity compensation to directors and officers (as defined by Rule 16a-1(f) of the Exchange Act) shall be made by the full Board or a sub-committee of the Committee comprised of at least two members who qualify as non-employee directors.

Committee members shall be elected by the Board on the recommendation of the Nominating and Governance Committee, and shall hold office until their resignation or removal or until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified. Committee members may be removed without cause by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Board. Unless a Chair is elected by the full Board, the members of the Committee may designate a Chair by majority vote of the full Committee membership. The Chairperson shall establish such other rules as may from time to time be necessary and proper for the conduct of the business of the Committee.

III. MEETINGS

The Committee shall meet at least two times a year and at such other times as it deems necessary to carry out its responsibilities. The Chair of the Committee and/or the Board may call such meetings. The Committee shall keep minutes of the proceedings of the Committee. The Committee may appoint a Secretary whose duties and responsibilities shall be to keep records of the proceedings of the Committee for the purposes of reporting Committee activities to the Board and to perform all other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him or her by the Committee, or otherwise at the direction of a Committee member. The Secretary need not be a member of the Committee or a Director and shall have no membership or voting rights by virtue of the position.

IV. RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

The following shall be recurring duties and responsibilities of the Committee in carrying out its purposes. These duties and responsibilities are set forth below as a guide to the Committee, with the understanding that the Committee may alter or supplement them as appropriate under the circumstances, to the extent permitted by applicable law.

1. Establish a compensation policy for executive officers designed to (i) enhance the profitability of the Company and

- increase shareholder value, (ii) reward executive officers for their contribution to the Company's growth and profitability, (iii) recognize individual initiative, leadership, achievement, and other contributions, and (iv) provide competitive compensation that will attract and retain qualified executive officers.
2. Establish a compensation policy for executive officers which, subject to variation where appropriate, includes (i) base salary, which shall be set on an annual or other periodic basis, (ii) annual or other time- or project-based incentive compensation, to be awarded in cash and/or equity in the Company, which shall be awarded for the achievement of predetermined financial, project, research or other designated objectives of the Company as a whole and of the executive officers individually, and (iii) long-term (multi-year) incentive compensation in the forms of cash, equity in the Company and/or other awards with the goal of aligning, where appropriate, the long-term interests of executive officers with those of the Company's shareholders and otherwise encouraging the achievement of superior results over an extended time period.
 3. Review competitive practices and trends to determine the adequacy of the executive compensation program.
 4. Review and consider participation and eligibility in the various components of the total executive compensation package.
 5. Annually review and approve individual and corporate goals and objectives relevant to each executive officer's compensation, including the President and CEO. Annually report to the independent members of the Board the approved individual and corporate goals and objectives relevant to each executive officer's compensation, including the President and CEO.
 6. Annually review and evaluate the executive officers performance, including the President and CEO, in light of their goals and objectives, and determine the executive officers' salary and bonus compensation levels based on this evaluation.
 7. Periodically, but not less than annually, review and determine incentive compensation in the form of cash and/or equity in the Company, including the award of stock options, for the executive officers of the Company, including the President and CEO.
 8. Periodically review and recommend to the Board the compensation of directors.
 9. Approve employment contracts, severance arrangements, change in control provisions and other agreements for executive officers.
 10. Approve and administer cash and/or equity in the Company incentives and deferred compensation plans, as they may exist from time to time, for executive officers (including any modification to such plans) and oversight of performance objectives and funding for executive incentive plans.
 11. Periodically, but not less than annually, review and determine incentive compensation in the form of equity in the Company, including the award of stock options, for the employees of the Company who are not executive officers and who are eligible to receive incentive compensation in the form of equity in the Company.
 12. Hire experts in the field of executive compensation to assist the Committee with its evaluation of director or executive officer compensation. The Committee shall have the sole authority to retain and to terminate such experts, and to approve the experts' fees and other retention terms. The Committee shall also have the authority to obtain advice and assistance from internal or external legal, accounting or other advisors.
 13. Review all compensation policies and practices for all employees to determine whether such policies and practices create risks that are reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the Corporation.
 14. Prepare annual reports summarizing executive officers' compensation levels and explaining the relationship between executive compensation and the organization's performance, as required by the SEC.
 15. Review the Compensation Discussion and Analysis ("CD&A") prepared by management, discuss the CD&A with management and, based on such review and discussions, recommend to the Board of Directors that the CD&A be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K, proxy statement, and any other applicable filing as required by the SEC.
 16. Periodically review executive supplementary benefits and, as appropriate, the organization's retirement, benefit, and special compensation programs involving significant cost.
 17. Form and delegate authority to subcommittees when appropriate.
 18. Make regular reports to the Board, including reports of the Committee's determinations of compensation for the executive officers, including the President and CEO.
 19. Annually review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.
 20. Annually evaluate the Committee's own performance.
 21. Recommend to the Board that the stockholders of the Corporation approve, on an advisory basis, the compensation of the named executive officers of the Corporation, as disclosed in the Corporation's proxy statement.
 22. Recommend to the Board the frequency of holding a vote on the compensation of the Corporation's named executive officers.
 23. Fulfill such other duties and responsibilities as may be assigned to the Committee, from time to time, by the Board and/or the Chairman of the Board.
