National Interstate Corporation is a leading specialty property and casualty insurance holding company with a niche orientation and focus on the transportation industry. Founded in 1989, the Company has had an uninterrupted record of profitability in every year since 1990, its first full year of operation.

The Company focuses on niche markets, offering insurance products designed to meet unique needs of targeted insurance buyers. These markets often possess barriers of entry, such as being too small, too remote, or too difficult to attract, or sustain competitors. National Interstate offers property and casualty insurance that can be grouped into the following business components: alternative risk transfer (ART), also known as captive programs, primarily for transportation companies; transportation, primarily passenger, truck, and moving and storage companies; specialty personal lines, primarily for recreational vehicles and small commercial vehicle accounts; and, transportation and general commercial insurance in Hawaii and Alaska.

National Interstate seeks to grow through new product offerings that address a specialized need in the respective market, by enhancing coverages, distribution, and product design for its existing products, and through strategic acquisitions. While growing, the Company has maintained strong underwriting and investment discipline to ensure sustained profitability. This profitable growth strategy has been successful and the Company is a recognized leader in its insurance markets as a result. The Company seeks to achieve a return on shareholders' equity of 15% plus inflation.

The Company's gross premiums written grew 27% and operating earnings per share increased 9% for the 2011 first quarter. The top line growth was due to the 2010 acquisition of Vanliner Insurance Company as well as growth in the ART component. The combination of higher earned premium, claims and underwriting expense results that were in line with expectations and increasing investment income contributed to the operating earnings.
