

NASDAQ OMX Continues to Dominate Technology IPOs With Welcome of Qlik Technologies to The NASDAQ Stock Market

NEW YORK, Jul 20, 2010 (GlobeNewswire via COMTEX News Network) -- The NASDAQ OMX Group, Inc. (Nasdaq:NDAQ), the world's largest exchange company, announced that the trading of Qlik Technologies Inc. ("QlikTech") (Nasdaq:QLIK) commenced on July 16 on The NASDAQ Stock Market. Qlik Technologies, which provides business intelligence software that enables clients to search and query business data in a multitude of ways, is headquartered in Radnor, Pennsylvania and trades under the ticker symbol (QLIK). Qlik Technologies was founded in Sweden and continues to generate the majority of its sales from clients outside the US.

"Qlik Technologies is a globally renowned innovator of business intelligence software," said Bruce Aust, Executive Vice President, Corporate Client Group, NASDAQ OMX. "As our 15th IPO this year in the information technology sector, we could not be more pleased to continue to hold our position as the market of choice for innovative technology companies."

NASDAQ IPOs have raised more than $4.32 billion in proceeds year-to-date, and NASDAQ has captured 42 new listings across a variety of sectors. Other distinguished companies who have recently listed on NASDAQ include: SMART Technologies (Nasdaq:SMT) which raised $660 million in proceeds in its first day of trading, CBOE Holdings, Inc. (Nasdaq:CBOE), and Tesla Motors, Inc. (Nasdaq:TSLA), the first IPO by an American automaker in 54 years.

About Qlik Technologies:

QlikTech's powerful, accessible business intelligence solution enables organizations to make better and faster decisions. Its QlikView product delivers enterprise-class analytics and search with the simplicity and ease of use of office productivity software. The in-memory associative search technology it pioneered makes calculations in real-time, enabling business professionals to gain insight through intuitive data exploration. Unlike traditional business intelligence products, QlikView can deliver value in days or weeks rather than months, years, or not at all. It can be deployed on premise, in the cloud, or on a laptop or mobile device -- from a single user to large global enterprises. QlikTech is headquartered in Radnor, Pennsylvania, with offices around the world and a network of over 1,100 partners to serve more than 13,000 customers in over 100 countries worldwide.
