

OMA receives certification as a Socially Responsible Company for 4th year in a row

Monterrey, Mexico, March 30, 2011-Mexican airport operator Grupo Aeroportuario del Centro Norte, S.A.B. de C.V., known as OMA (NASDAQ: OMAB, BMV:OMA), announces that it received certification as a Socially Responsible Company from the Mexican Center for Philanthropy (CEMEFI) and the Alliance for Corporate Social Responsibility (AliaRSE).

As part of the certification process, OMA evaluated its activities on 120 indicators for Corporate Social Responsibility in four areas: quality of life, business ethics, community ties, and care for and preservation of the environment.

Victor Bravo, the CEO of OMA said, "In OMA we base our commitment to be a socially responsible company on policies, programs and actions in all our airports. We seek to provide a safe working environment and to promote healthy living by our employees and users, to improve the quality of the services we provide, to coexist in harmony with nature, and to meet the obligations we have, as a company, with society. We will continue with this focus to contribute to the social and economic development of the regions where we operate."

OMA received the award for the fourth consecutive year in a public awards ceremony that took place at the Fourth Meeting of Socially Responsible Companies in Latin America, yesterday in Mexico City.
