

Cindy Luo, Winner of Golden Peak in the 10th Chinese Fashion Design Competition

Cindy Luo is a fashion designer known for her romantic and elegant design style. Cindy showed her masterpiece “20 gram” in the 10th Chinese Fashion Design Competition and won the Golden Peak award, the uppermost award in China’s design industry. “20 grams is the weight of a soul”, Cindy said. The creation of “20 grams” was inspired by her beloved “Butterfly Flower” which exhausts its lifetime to become a butterfly (in China’s fairy tale). Cindy used pure white and noble purple voile to craft “20 grams”, supplemented by light golden silk. “20 grams” represents the eternal delicacy and beauty of life.
