

J.P. Morgan Appointed by SKY Harbor to Provide Custody and Related Services

NEW YORK, April 17, 2012 - J.P. Morgan Worldwide Securities Services (WSS) today announced it has been selected by SKY Harbor Global Funds, a Luxembourg registered UCITS IV investment company, to provide global custody, transfer agency, fund administration and fund accounting for SKY Harbor's newly launched US High Yield and US Short Duration High Yield sub-funds.

SKY Harbor Capital Management, LLC, the investment advisor for the sub-funds, is a high yield fixed income specialist based in Greenwich, Connecticut. The sub funds will be registered in various European countries with a range of currency-hedged classes available for institutional investors.

"We are extremely pleased that J.P. Morgan will be the custodian and administrator of SKY Harbor Global Funds," said Thomas Kelleher, Director of SKY Harbor Global Funds. "SKY Harbor's 'client first' commitment means we provide efficiency and transparency for our clients, and we expect our service providers to do the same. We believe J.P. Morgan's sophisticated and integrated technology is the perfect platform to ensure world-class client service."

"We are delighted about the opportunity to support SKY Harbor, especially as they gain market share and build their brand around the world," said Robert Caporale, head of new business development - Americas, J.P. Morgan WSS. "Working with SKY Harbor allows us to leverage our global platform and deliver first class service to their investors, which is our top priority."

"As the industry leader for servicing cross-border UCITS funds in Europe. J.P. Morgan brings a wealth of experience, expertise and market intelligence in this space," said Christopher Edge, J.P. Morgan WSS head of Luxembourg.
