Perry Ellis International Announces Expansion of Men's and Boy's Footwear License for Perry Ellis Brand

MIAMI, July 24, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Perry Ellis International (Nasdaq:PERY) announced today it is rounding out its license agreement with ACI International by further extending the men's and boy's casual footwear line into boy's flip flops and slippers under the Perry Ellis® trademark in the U.S. and Canada. The license complements the Company's interest in showcasing its diverse portfolio of brands to customers of all ages in new and exciting ways.

The Perry Ellis collection will be distributed in department stores and family footwear chains with a product launch in Spring 2018.

As a designer, Perry Ellis played with fashion convention simply by not taking it so seriously. Following only what felt right. In doing so, he redefined the fashion industry. This philosophy continues to inspire the Perry Ellis brand which offers modern style with versatile trend right looks that reflect the way people want to work, play and live today.

"We are pleased to expand our collaboration with ACI International. We currently have a license agreement with them for Perry Ellis men's and boy's dress, casual and sport footwear categories. This new license rounds out the total footwear business," commented George Feldenkreis, Executive Chairman of Perry Ellis International.

"We have worked closely with the team at Perry Ellis over these past 10 years to build together a very successful dress and casual footwear business for men and boys. We are excited to now have the opportunity to work on other important categories with flip flops and slippers," said Steve Jackson, CEO of ACI International.
