

PNM Resources Posts Third-Quarter Weather Data on Web Site

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M., Oct 05, 2009 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- PNM Resources (NYSE: PNM) has posted weather-related data on its corporate Web site, www.PNMResources.com, to help analysts and investors forecast earnings. Information regarding heating-degree days and cooling-degree days normally is posted quarterly on the site as soon as it is available. Weather data is posted in the Investor Relations section of the Web site, under Financial and Statistical Data.

Derived from daily average temperatures, heating-degree and cooling-degree days are quantitative indices designed to reflect the demand for energy needed to heat or cool a home or business.

In addition, PNM Resources encourages analysts, investors and other interested parties to visit PNMResources.com and register to automatically receive company financial information by email. Once registered, participants can choose from a menu to automatically receive requested information, including news releases, notices of webcasts, and filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Participants can unsubscribe at any time and will not receive information that was not requested.

Interested parties also can register to receive automatic updates via RSS feeds, or Really Simple Syndication. RSS is a format designed for sharing updated Web content such as news headlines and SEC filings. An RSS feed automatically highlights fresh material from the PNM Resources Web site so registrants don't have to repeatedly check the site for updates.
