A. Board Candidates and Nominees

The Committee shall have the following duties and responsibilities with respect to Board candidates and nominees:

Additional factors which the Committee may consider include a candidate's specific experiences and skills, relevant industry background and knowledge, business judgment, time availability in light of other commitments, diversity, age, potential conflicts of interest, material relationships with the Company and independence from management and the Company. The Committee also may seek to have the Board represent a diversity of backgrounds, experience, gender and race and may consider such other relevant factors that the Committee regards as appropriate in the context of the needs of the Board.

(c) To recommend to the Board the director nominees for election by the shareholders or appointment by the Board, as the case may be, pursuant to the Bylaws of the Company, which recommendations shall be consistent with the criteria for selecting directors established by the Board from time to time.

(d) To establish for each director an appropriate number of shares of Company stock and the period of time following his or her election to the Board for the director to own the shares.

The Committee shall have the following duties and responsibilities with respect to the composition and procedures of the Board as a whole:

(a) To review annually with the Board the composition of the Board as a whole and to recommend, if necessary, measures to be taken so that the Board reflects the appropriate balance of knowledge, experience, skills, expertise and diversity required for the Board as a whole and contains at least the minimum number of independent directors required by the NYSE Standards.

(b) To review periodically the size of the Board and to recommend to the Board any appropriate changes.

(c) To make recommendations on the frequency and structure of Board meetings.

(c) To review annually committee assignments and the policy with respect to the rotation of committee memberships and/or chairpersonships, and to report any recommendations to the Board.

(d) To recommend that the Board establish such special committees as may be desirable or necessary from time to time in order to address ethical, legal or other matters that may arise. F. Evaluation of the Board and Committees of the Board

The Committee shall sponsor an annual evaluation of the Board's performance and report to the Board on the performance and effectiveness of the Board. The Committee shall coordinate the development of evaluation procedures for the other committees of the Board and review the overall evaluation process of the Board and its committees. The Committee shall establish procedures to allow it to exercise these evaluation functions.

V. EVALUATION OF THE COMMITTEE

The Committee shall, on an annual basis, evaluate its performance. In conducting this review, the Committee shall evaluate whether this Charter appropriately addresses the matters that are or should be within its scope and shall recommend such changes as it deems necessary or appropriate. The Committee shall address all matters that the Committee considers relevant to its performance, including at least the following: the adequacy, appropriateness and quality of the information and recommendations presented by the Committee to the Board, the manner in which they were discussed or debated, and whether the number and length of meetings of the Committee were adequate for the Committee to complete its work in a thorough and thoughtful manner.

VI. INVESTIGATIONS AND STUDIES; OUTSIDE ADVISERS

The Committee may conduct or authorize investigations into or studies of matters within the Committee's scope of responsibilities, and may retain, at the Company's expense, such independent counsel or other consultants or advisers as it deems necessary.
