Primoris Services Corporation Announces LNG Engineering and Construction Award Valued at Over $100 Million

DALLAS, TX -- (Marketwired) -- 02/09/17 -- Primoris Services Corporation (NASDAQ: PRIM) ("Primoris" or "Company") today announced a new liquefied natural gas ("LNG") facility engineering award valued at over $100 million. The contract was secured by Primoris Services Corporation's OnQuest, Inc. subsidiary, which is part of the Energy segment.

- | The project is an Engineering, Procurement, and Construction ("EPC") award by a New England-based energy company to replace an existing liquefaction facility with a new LNG plant based on a nitrogen cycle liquefier.
- | The scope of work includes plant design, engineering, procurement, transportation (freight to site), and construction/installation of the facility. OnQuest will also provide operator training, commissioning, start-up, and performance testing for the facility.
- | OnQuest will provide the turnkey EPC for the project, utilizing Primoris (James) Industrial Constructors, a division of Primoris Energy Services, for all construction services for the project
- | Engineering on this project is scheduled to begin in the first quarter of 2017, and plant completion is expected in the third quarter of 2019.
