

Quality Closes Successful Bond Exchange, Extends Debt Maturities to Mid-2013

TAMPA, Fla., Oct 15, 2009 (GlobeNewswire via COMTEX News Network) -- Quality Distribution, Inc. (Nasdaq:QLTY) announced today the successful completion of the previously announced private exchange offers and retail tender offer of its wholly owned subsidiaries, Quality Distribution, LLC and QD Capital Corporation.

Gary Enzor, Chief Executive Officer, stated, "The completion of the exchanges and tender starts a new and exciting chapter for our company. All major debt maturities have been pushed back to mid-2013. Today we have approximately $50 million of liquidity available for business opportunities. Last week we divested our QualaWash business, which enables us to become even more focused on our core transportation business. Our asset-light business model is operated with very strong affiliate partners who provide premium customer service to hundreds of customers, including highly recognizable shippers such as BASF, Dow, DuPont, ExxonMobil, Georgia-Pacific, Honeywell, Proctor & Gamble, Sunoco and Unilever. Despite this prolonged and painful recession, we've never been better positioned as the leader in our industry to grow market share and increase value for our customers."

Headquartered in Tampa, Florida, Quality Distribution, Inc. through its subsidiaries, Quality Carriers, Inc. and Boasso America Corporation, and through its affiliates and owner-operators, provides bulk transportation and related services. Quality Distribution is a core carrier for many of the Fortune 500 companies that are engaged in chemical production and processing.
