Raven Industries Announces Resignation of Heather Wilson From Board of Directors

SIOUX FALLS, S.D., May 09, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Raven Industries (NASDAQ:RAVN) announced today that Heather Wilson has resigned from its board of directors effective immediately. Wilson was recently confirmed to be the U.S. Secretary of the Air Force.

"Heather brought a useful perspective to the board with her range of experiences and knowledge on a variety of global and domestic issues," said Dan Rykhus President and CEO of Raven Industries. "Raven and its board of directors thank Heather for her leadership and service to the company."

Wilson, who has served on the board since 2016, shared the same sentiment, "I have very much enjoyed my service with Raven, and I wish them all the best."
