

RCN Launches "Dinner and a Movie" Promotion

- Provides Customers with $50 Restaurant Certificate and Free HBO

BOSTON - October 2, 2008 - RCN, a local leading provider of fiber optic triple-play high-speed internet, digital television and phone services, today announced the launch of its "Dinner and a Movie" promotion. Customers will receive a $50 restaurant.com certificate for six months and free HBO for three months (a value of more than $50) when they order RCN's triple-play bundle of internet, digital television, and phone services.

"The Dinner and a Movie promotion is a wonderful chance to welcome new customers to RCN. We are proud to offer not only a fantastic value, but a great way for our customers enjoy the RCN experience with good food and entertainment." said Richard Wadman, General Manager of RCN Boston.

In addition to free dinners and HBO, which features original programming and first rate movies, customers will benefit from over $300 in savings when they sign a one-year contract for RCN's Triple Play package at just $99 per month. The comprehensive plan includes high speed internet, phone services, and signature digital television that comprises 180 all-digital channels, three free months of HBO, and almost forty high definition channels - a larger HD channel lineup than any other television provider.

More information about the Dinner and a Movie promotion can be found online at <http://www.rcn.com/dinnerandmovie>.
