Signature Bank Ranks Among Top Three in Multiple Categories of New York Law Journal's Eighth Annual Reader Survey

Bank Named Best Private Bank and Best Attorney Escrow Services Provider; Ranks in Top Three of Best Business Bank Category for Eighth Consecutive Year

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Signature Bank (Nasdaq: SBNY), a New York-based full-service commercial bank, announced today it has been named Best Private Bank and Best Attorney Escrow Services provider as well as ranked second in the Best Business category of the New York Law Journal's eighth annual reader survey, now part of the "Best of" survey supplement. The Bank has placed in the top three of the Best Business Bank category for each of the past eight years, since the New York Law Journal first introduced its reader ranking survey.

Every year since 2010, Signature Bank has continually secured the top spot or ranked in the top three in each of the categories in which it placed. In the eight consecutive years Signature Bank has been voted among the top three Best Business Banks, it was number one three times. It is also the seventh consecutive year the Bank was named in the top three of the Best Private Bank category, and the sixth consecutive year it appeared in the top three in the Best Attorney Escrow Services provider category, including ranking number one for the third time.

The rankings, which were revealed in the September 25, 2017 edition of the New York-area's leading legal trade publication, were based solely on 7,500+ reader-casted votes, primarily those of attorneys and other legal professionals. Readers were presented an opportunity to vote in more than 80 legal-related categories. The voting process is purely democratic, and results represent the candid opinions of New York Law Journal readers.

The New York Law Journal rankings come on the heels of Signature Bank also being cited in the top three of the Nation's Best Private Banking Services category of The National Law Journal, a sister publication of the New York Law Journal.

"Our top placement in the New York Law Journal reader ranking survey for the eighth consecutive year -- primarily across all three categories -- is evidence that the service and support we provide to our legal-related and law firm clients is exceptional. It is representative of the relationship-based service model upon which Signature Bank was built, where our bankers serve as the single point of contact to meet all clients' needs. In the case of law firms, perhaps more so than in other industries, oftentimes there are many time-sensitive deadlines and confidential requests. We understand the distinct needs of law firms and are able to respond quickly and efficiently, contributing to the high marks we continue to earn in several of these other legal-focused trade publications," noted Signature Bank President and Chief Executive Officer Joseph J. DePaolo.

"We thank our many loyal clients and dedicated professionals within the legal community who rely upon Signature Bank to meet their legal needs. We are committed to providing them the same levels of stellar service to which they have grown accustomed and upon which they base their votes in reader ranking surveys such as these. We appreciate the fact they made the effort to be sure to cast their votes for Signature Bank," he said.

The New York Law Journal is a reliable news source for attorneys, designed to keep the fast-paced New York-area legal community up-to-date on industry trends and developments. The publication is owned by ALM, a global leader in specialized business news and information serving the legal, real estate, consulting, insurance and investment advisory industries.
