-- Only comScore Provides the Official Global Movie Results --

LOS ANGELES, April 30, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- comScore today announced the official worldwide weekend box office estimates for the weekend of April 30, 2017, as compiled by the company's theatrical measurement services.

As the trusted official standard for real-time worldwide box office reporting, comScore provides the only theater-level reporting in the world. Customers are able to analyze admissions and gross results around the world using comScore's suite of products.

comScore's Senior Media Analyst Paul Dergarabedian commented, "Disney's much-anticipated 'Guardians of the Galaxy Vol. 2' got a head start this weekend, topping the global chart to the tune of $101.2 million in 37 international territories in anticipation of its North American debut later this week. The film is going to officially kick off the summer movie season and looks to have a spectacular showing as enthusiastic fans line up to see Star-Lord and his unusual band of intergalactic compatriots do their thing accompanied by a killer soundtrack of classic songs."
