

Salary.com Launches PayrollManager Express Small Business Payroll Solution

Online Payroll Solution Features No-Touch Tax Management and Advanced Payroll Options, Offered Free for First Year

NEEDHAM, MA, Oct 29, 2009 (MARKETWIRE via COMTEX News Network) -- Salary.com, Inc. (NASDAQ: SLRY), a leading provider of on-demand talent management, payroll and compensation solutions, launched PayrollManager Express(TM), the company's new small business payroll offering.

PayrollManager Express (www.payrollmanagerexpress.com) features no-touch tax management and advanced payroll options, and offers small business owners an easy-to-use, lower-cost alternative to traditional payroll systems. By adding PayrollManager Express to its portfolio of HR software, Salary.com extends its payroll offerings from large enterprises to small business.

Salary.com is making a special offer to small businesses right in time for the coming payroll season: one year of free payroll services through PayrollManager Express, subject to certain terms. Salary.com customers and companies that are using other vendors' payroll software are eligible provided they enroll using PayrollManager Express' convenient online enrollment form by December 31, 2009.

"Many small businesses have inherited an old fashioned payroll experience with an awkward and outdated Web interface from one of the traditional players," said Brent Kleiman, SVP, marketing & strategy at Salary.com. "Most small business payroll offerings do not support more advanced departmental, G/L or time and attendance needs. PayrollManager Express offers a powerful online service within a fresh intuitive Web interface, making payroll management easy and straightforward for small business owners."
