The two charities, Interface Children & Family Services, and RaisingHOPE, Inc., will divide the $77,000 in proceeds, a 39% increase from last year's fundraising effort. Each foundation is focused on helping children and families in need of support and mentorship. Sponsors for this year's charity golf event included O'Melveny & Myers LLP, Deloitte & Touche, King & Spalding LLP, and Alliant Employee Benefits.

For the past several years, Semtech has hosted employees, family and friends for a full day of festivities, including a putting contest, a shot gun-style golf tournament, a silent auction and raffle, as well as a dinner and award ceremony.

"Our annual charity golf tournament has become a rewarding tradition for all involved at Semtech as we promote more awareness for our local non-profit organizations," said Mohan Maheswaran, Chief Executive Officer of Semtech Corporation. "Headquartered in Camarillo, Semtech strives to have a positive impact on Ventura County through its charitable initiatives."

To date, the charity golf tournament has raised over $212,000 for Ventura Country charities including Big Brothers Big Sisters of Ventura County, RAIN Communities, Inc. and Casa Pacifica.
