Tech Data Launches StreamOne Digital Marketplace in Latin America and Caribbean Region

CLEARWATER, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Tech Data (Nasdaq: TECD) today announced that its StreamOne™ Digital Marketplace, the company's unique provisioning, billing and end-user lifecycle management digital platform for consumption- and subscription-based cloud services, is launching in the Latin America and Caribbean (LAC) region.

With the StreamOne Digital Marketplace, resellers can quickly scale, launch and manage a broad range of cloud services, including Software as a Service (SaaS), Infrastructure as a Service (IaaS) and Platform as a Service (PaaS). The StreamOne Digital Marketplace also allows partners to take advantage of advanced offerings such as assessment, migration, security and monitoring—enabling hassle-free cloud transitions for their customers.

"Whether customers are looking to resell cloud services or integrate them into their own e-commerce environments, StreamOne provides the functionality and capabilities to accomplish their goals," said Deena Piquion, Tech Data's vice president and general manager, LAC. "Making this digital platform available in the LAC region will provide the ability for our customers to quickly and easily access and deliver cloud solutions."

Tech Data customers can leverage the StreamOne Digital Marketplace resource library of solution guides, how-to documents, whitepapers and FAQs to build unique solutions that meet their end users' business demands. StreamOne delivers immediate provisioning of cloud subscriptions and services, allowing channel partners to add or reduce cloud services and receive credentials in minutes.
