

Harris & Harris Group Mentioned in Motley Fool Article

Shareholders of Harris & Harris Group may be interested to read a Motley Fool online article by Rich Duprey, titled "Stocks Doing Right by Shareholders," dated December 10, 2009, which mentions the Company as having a relatively high corporate governance quotient rating as measured by Institutional Shareholder Services. Institutional Shareholder Services measures how well a company performs in as many as 63 categories covering four broad areas of shareholder interest, and each company is scored relative to its market index and its industry group. It assigns the stocks a rating that it calls its corporate governance quotient, or CGQ.
