Tronox Receives Statement of Objections from the European Commission Regarding the Cristal TiO₂ Acquisition Agreement

STAMFORD, Conn., March 20, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- Tronox Limited (NYSE: TROX) ("Tronox" or the "Company"), a global mining and inorganic chemicals company, today announced it has received a Statement of Objections from the European Commission (the "Commission") regarding the previously announced agreement to acquire the titanium dioxide ("TiO₂") business of Cristal, a privately held global chemical and mining company headquartered in Jeddah, Saudi Arabia. The Statement of Objections reflects the preliminary assessment of the Commission and does not prejudice the outcome of the investigation and/or the need to offer any particular remedy. Tronox must respond to the Statement of Objections by early April 2018.

"The Statement of Objections further details and clarifies the Commission's position, and receipt of it establishes a defined framework to move forward," said Jeffrey N. Quinn, president and chief executive officer of Tronox. "We continue in constructive dialogue and I am confident we can determine an appropriate and proportionate resolution to any valid concerns of the Commission."

About Tronox
