All-Star Lineup for The Deal's 2nd Annual Corporate Governance Conference

NEW YORK, May 3, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- The Deal and BoardEx, business units of TheStreet (NASDAQ: TST), will host their 2nd annual Corporate Governance conference next month at JW Marriott Essex House in New York, to help corporate decision makers and their key advisers meet -- and master -- the latest and most critical challenges in managing their companies to maximize shareholder value.

The Deal

"Corporate leaders face an increasingly wide gamut of challenges, as activist and institutional investors expect more and more from boards - from performance-based compensation and effective cyber-risk management to shareholder-first board composition and structure," said Tara Murphy, Editor-in-Chief of TheStreet. "The keynotes, one-on-one interviews and panel discussions at this conference will provide attendees with actionable insights into how to identify and implement best practices."

James J. Cramer, Founder of TheStreet, Inc.; best-selling author; Host, "Mad Money with Jim Cramer" and Co-Anchor of "Squawk on The Street," CNBC will host and moderate the day. Speakers include:

- | Chief Justice Leo E. Strine, Jr., Delaware Supreme Court
- | Arthur Winkleblack, Member of the Boards of Directors of Church & Dwight Co., Performance Food Group Company and The Wendy's Company; Retired EVP & CFO of HJ Heinz
- | Scott A. Barshay, Partner, Paul Weiss
- | Kirill Tatarinov, Director, President and CEO, Citrix Systems
- | Jared Landaw, Chief Operating Officer, Barington Capital Group, L.P.
- | Vice Chancellor Sam Glasscock III, Delaware Court of Chancery
- | Tim Ryan, US Chairman and Senior Partner, PWC
- | David Rosewater, Global Head of Shareholder Activism and Corporate Defense, Morgan Stanley
- | Mary Ann Deignan, Managing Director, Lazard Frères & Co.
- | Fritz van Paasschen, Former CEO, Starwood Hotels & Resorts Worldwide, Inc.
