Q4 and Full Year 2013 Earnings Conference Call

February 6, 2014

Safe Harbor Disclosure

Statements in this announcement other than historical data and information constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 as amended and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 as amended. These statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause our actual results to differ materially from those stated or implied by such forward-looking statements. The potential risks and uncertainties include, among others, the uncertainty of whether the U.S. Department of Commerce will approve any exercise by us of our right to increase the price per .com domain name, under certain circumstances, the uncertainty of whether we will be able to demonstrate to the U.S. Department of Commerce that market conditions warrant removal of the pricing restrictions on .com domain names and the uncertainty of whether we will experience other negative changes to our pricing terms; the failure to renew key agreements on similar terms, or at all; the uncertainty of future revenue and profitability and potential fluctuations in quarterly operating results due to such factors as restrictions on increasing prices under the .com Registry Agreement, changes in marketing and advertising practices, including those of third-party registrars, increasing competition, and pricing pressure from competing services offered at prices below our prices; changes in search engine algorithms and advertising payment practices; the uncertainty of whether we will successfully develop and market new products and services; the uncertainty of whether our new products and services, if any, will achieve market acceptance or result in any revenues; challenging global economic conditions; challenges to ongoing privatization of Internet administration; the outcome of legal or other challenges resulting from our activities or the activities of registrars or registrants, or litigation generally; the uncertainty regarding what the ultimate outcome or amount of benefit we receive, if any, from the worthless stock deduction will be; new or existing governmental laws and regulations; changes in customer behavior, Internet platforms and web-browsing patterns; system interruptions; security breaches; attacks on the Internet by hackers, viruses, or intentional acts of vandalism; whether we will be able to continue to expand our infrastructure to meet demand; the uncertainty of the expense and timing of requests for indemnification, if any, relating to completed divestitures; and the impact of the introduction of new gTLDs, any delays in their introduction, the impact of ICANN's Registry Agreement for new gTLDs, and whether our gTLD applications or the applicants' gTLD applications for which we have contracted to provide back-end registry services will be successful; and the uncertainty regarding the impact, if any, of the delegation into the root zone of up to 1,400 new TLDs. More information about potential factors that could affect our business and financial results is included in our filings with the SEC, including in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended Dec. 31, 2012, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K. Verisign undertakes no obligation to update any of the forward-looking statements after the date of this announcement.

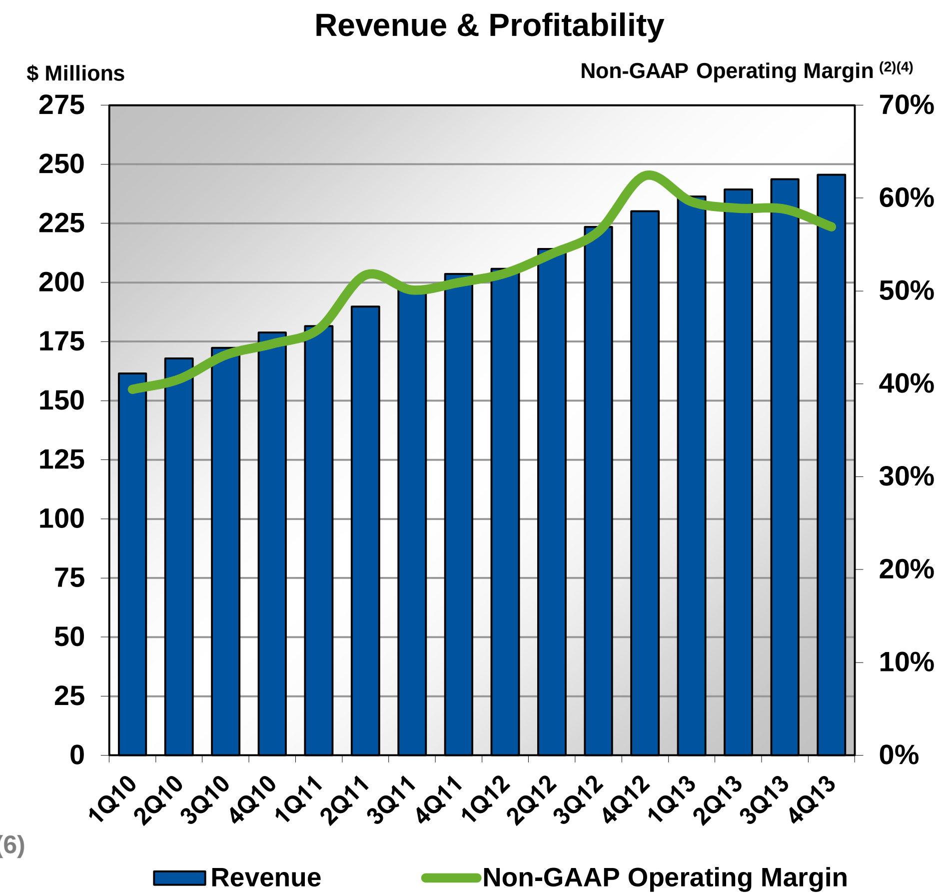
- Free Cash Flow of $121.3M[3]
- 1,075 Full-Time Employees at Dec. 31, 2013[6]



1) GAAP results for the fourth quarter of 2013 included the income tax benefit related to the worthless stock deduction, pre-tax non-operating gains from the sale of certain cost-method investments, and income tax expense related to taxable income generated in the U.S. as a result of an intended repatriation, which collectively increased net income by $217.8 million and increased diluted EPS by $1.45.

2) Please refer to “Summary of Non-GAAP Measures” for important information.

3) Free cash flow is defined as cash flow from operations adjusted to include excess tax benefits from stock based compensation, less capital expenditures. See Free Cash Flow Calculation in slide appendix for more detail.

4) Non-GAAP Operating Margin for the second quarter of 2011 included a pre-tax $6 million accrued expense reversal, which is non-recurring in nature, which increased operating margin by 3.1 percentage points. The Non-GAAP operating margin for the fourth quarter of 2012 included certain non-recurring pre-tax benefits as described in the fourth quarter 2012 earnings news release which, together, increased the non-GAAP operating margin by 4.9 percentage points.

5) Non-GAAP results for the fourth quarter of 2013 included a pre-tax, non-operating, gain of $15.8 million from the sale of certain cost method investments which increased diluted EPS by $0.07.

6) As of Dec. 31, 2013, not including 4 interns.

Financial Guidance[1]

- 2014 Revenue
  - $1.0 to $1.02 billion, or 4% to 6% growth
- 2014 Non-GAAP Gross Margin[2]
  - At least 80%
- Full year 2014 Non-GAAP Operating Margin[3]
  - 58% to 60%
- 2014 Non-GAAP Interest Expense and Non-GAAP Non-Operating Income, net[4]
  - $73 to $77 million expense
- 2014 Capital Expenditures
  - $60 to $80 million expense

1) This guidance is based on our current growth expectations and increased operating efficiencies in our business in addition to our financial projections for non-operating income and interest expense. Guidance for all non-GAAP figures excludes the same items as we excluded in our Q4 2013 non-GAAP reconciliation, as follows: discontinued operations, stock-based compensation, amortization of other intangibles assets, impairments of goodwill and other intangible assets, restructuring charges, contingent interest payment to holders of our Convertible Debentures, unrealized gain/loss on contingent interest derivative on Convertible Debentures, and non-cash interest expense.

2) The most directly comparable GAAP measure to non-GAAP gross margin is GAAP gross margin. Non-GAAP gross margin is defined as revenues minus cost of revenues adjusted for stock-based compensation the total of which is then divided by revenues.

3) The most directly comparable GAAP measure to non-GAAP operating margin is GAAP operating income. Non-GAAP operating margin is defined as GAAP operating income adjusted for stock-based compensation, amortization of other intangible assets, impairments of goodwill and other intangible assets, if any, and restructuring charges, the total of which is then divided by revenues.

4) The most directly comparable GAAP measure to Non-GAAP Interest Expense is GAAP Interest Expense. Non-GAAP Interest Expense excludes contingent interest payment to holders of the Convertible Debentures, and non-cash interest expense, which are included in GAAP Interest Expense. The most directly comparable GAAP measure to Non-GAAP Non-Operating Income, net is GAAP Non-Operating Income, net. Non-GAAP Non-Operating Income, net excludes unrealized gain/loss on contingent interest derivative on Convertible Debentures which is included in GAAP Non-Operating Income, net.

Q&A

Annex

Convertible Debentures Dilution Calculation

- Basic inputs (as of Dec. 31, 2013)
  - $1.25 billion notional
  - 29.0968 shares per $1,000 is the current conversion ratio
  - 36.37 million shares issuable (based on conversion ratio)
  - $34.368 current conversion price
- Treasury stock method dilution calculation[1]

$$\frac{(\text{Average Share Price} \times \text{Shares Issuable}) - \text{Notional}}{\text{Average Share Price}} = \text{Share Dilution}$$

- Q4 calculation ($55.06 average share price during Q4 2013)

$$\frac{($55.06 \times 36.37\text{M shares}) - $1.25\text{B}}{$55.06} = 13.7\text{M shares}$$

1) Verisign uses the Treasury stock method to account for the dilutive effect of the convertible debentures.

Convertible Debentures Dilution Sensitivity

Verisign $1.25 Billion Convertible Debenture (due 8/15/2037) Dilution
Sensitivity Based on Average Quarterly Stock Price

Quarterly share dilution under the Treasury stock method is calculated as follows:

Verisign provides quarterly and annual financial statements that are prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). Along with this information, we typically disclose and discuss certain non-GAAP financial information in our quarterly earnings release, on investor conference calls and during investor conferences and related events. This non-GAAP financial information does not include the following types of financial measures that are included in GAAP: discontinued operations, stock-based compensation, amortization of other intangible assets, impairments of goodwill and other intangible assets, restructuring charges, contingent interest payments to holders of the subordinated convertible debentures, unrealized gain/loss on contingent interest derivative on subordinated convertible debentures, and non-cash interest expense. Non-GAAP financial information is also adjusted for a 28 percent tax rate, which differs from the GAAP tax rate.

Management believes that this non-GAAP financial data supplements the GAAP financial data by providing investors with additional information that allows them to have a clearer picture of our operations. The presentation of this additional information is not meant to be considered in isolation nor as a substitute for results prepared in accordance with GAAP. We believe that the non-GAAP information enhances investors' overall understanding of our financial performance and the comparability of our operating results from period to period. Above, we have provided a reconciliation of the non-GAAP financial information that we provide each quarter with the comparable financial information reported in accordance with GAAP for the given period.

Adjusted EBITDA Reconciliation

(In thousands, except per share data)

(Unaudited)

Following the offering of the 4.625% senior notes due 2023 (the "Notes"), we disclose our Adjusted EBITDA for the periods shown below. Adjusted EBITDA is a non-GAAP financial measure and is calculated in accordance with the terms of the indenture governing the Notes. Adjusted EBITDA refers to net income before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, stock-based compensation, unrealized loss (gain) on contingent interest derivative on the subordinated convertible debentures and unrealized loss (gain) on hedging agreements.

The following table reconciles GAAP net income to Adjusted EBITDA for the periods shown below (in thousands):

	Three Months Ended December 31, 2013	Three Months Ended December 31, 2012
Net Income	$ 292,149	$ 105,641
Interest expense	21,237	12,657
Income tax (benefit) expense	(175,704)	33,516
Depreciation and amortization	15,240	15,167
Stock-based compensation	9,643	6,971
Unrealized loss (gain) on contingent interest derivative on the subordinated convertible debentures	8,078	(7,549)
Unrealized loss on hedging agreements	1	723
Adjusted EBITDA	$ 170,644	$ 167,126

	Year Ended December 31, 2013
Net Income	$ 544,450
Interest expense	74,761
Income tax benefit	(87,679)
Depreciation and amortization	60,655
Stock-based compensation	36,649
Unrealized loss on contingent interest derivative on the subordinated convertible debentures	17,801
Unrealized gain on hedging agreements	(703)
Adjusted EBITDA	$ 645,934

Verisign's management believes that presenting Adjusted EBITDA enhances investors' overall understanding of our financial performance and the comparability of our operating results from period to period. However, Adjusted EBITDA has important limitations as an analytical tool. These limitations include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Adjusted EBITDA does not reflect our cash expenditures, or future requirements, for capital expenditures or contractual commitments;
- Adjusted EBITDA does not reflect changes in, or cash requirements for, our working capital needs;
- Adjusted EBITDA does not reflect the significant interest expense, or the cash requirements necessary to service interest or principal payments, on our debt;
- although depreciation and amortization are non-cash charges, the assets being depreciated and amortized will often have to be replaced in the future, and Adjusted EBITDA does not reflect any cash requirements for such replacements;
- non-cash compensation is and will remain a key element of our overall long-term incentive compensation package, although we exclude it as an expense when evaluating its ongoing operating performance for a particular period; and
- other companies in our industry may calculate Adjusted EBITDA differently than we do, limiting its usefulness as a comparative measure.

Because of these limitations, Adjusted EBITDA should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for performance measures calculated in accordance with GAAP.

Non-GAAP Reconciliation

Reconciliation of Non-GAAP Interest Expense and Non-GAAP Non-Operating Income, net [1]

1) Free Cash Flow is a non-GAAP financial measure defined as cash flow from operating activities (adjusted to include excess tax benefits from stock-based compensation), less net capital expenditures. The excess tax benefits from stock-based compensation, as reported on the statements of cash flows in cash flows from financing activities, represent the reduction in income taxes otherwise payable during the period, attributable to the actual gross tax benefits in excess of the expected tax benefits for options exercised/awards released in current and prior periods.
2) The sum of the amounts in the columns and rows may not match the total amounts shown due to rounding.

1) The domain name base is a count of domain names in the .com and .net base, adjusted for domain names registrations cancelled during the grace period.
2) Figures may differ slightly from figures reported elsewhere due to rounding.
3) Renewal rates are not fully measurable until 45 days after the end of the quarter.
