In the election of directors and in all other matters as to which the shareholders shall be entitled to vote, the holders of common stock will be entitled to one vote for each share of common stock held by them. The outstanding shares of common stock, upon dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the Corporation, entitle their holders to share, pro rata, based on the number of shares owned, in the Corporation's assets remaining after payment or provisions for payment of all debts and liabilities of the Corporation, and after provisions for the outstanding shares of any class of stock or other security having senior liquidation rights to the common stock.
- d. No amendment, modification or repeal of this ARTICLE FIFTH shall eliminate or limit the protection afforded to a officer or director with respect to any act or omission occurring before the effective date hereof.

SIXTH

- a. The Corporation shall, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, as from time to time in effect, indemnify any person who was, is or is threatened to be named as a defendant or respondent in or otherwise involved in any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and whether formal or informal, including without limitation any such action, suit or proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor (any such action, suit or proceeding being herein called a "Proceeding"), because he or she is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or because he or she, while a director or officer of the Corporation, is or was serving at the Corporation's request as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or any other entity or enterprise, against any and all judgments, settlements, penalties, fines, including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan, and/or reasonable expenses (including counsel fees) incurred with respect to a Proceeding or any appeal therein.
- b. The Corporation shall pay any such expenses incurred by a director or officer, or former director or officer, of the Corporation in connection with any such Proceeding in advance of the final disposition thereof upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such person to repay such advances to the extent of the amount to which such person shall ultimately be determined not to be entitled and upon satisfaction of such other conditions as may be required by applicable law.
- c. The Corporation, by resolution of the Board of Directors, may extend the benefits of this Article SIXTH to current and/or former employees, agents and other representatives of the Corporation (each person entitled to benefits under this Article SIXTH being hereinafter sometimes called an "Indemnified Person").
- d. All rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses granted under or pursuant to this Article SIXTH shall be deemed to arise out of a contract between the Corporation and each person who is an Indemnified Person at any time while this Article SIXTH is in effect and may be evidenced by a separate contract between the Corporation and each Indemnified Person; and such rights shall be effective in respect of all Proceedings commenced after the effective date of these Articles of Incorporation, whether arising from acts or omissions occurring before or after such date. No amendment, modification or repeal of this Article SIXTH shall affect any rights or obligations theretofore existing.
- e. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of, or insure or cause to be insured, any person who is an Indemnified Person against any liability asserted against or incurred by him or her in any capacity in respect of which he or she is an Indemnified Person, or arising out of his or her status in such capacity, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him or her against such liability under this Article SIXTH. As used in this Section "insurance" includes retrospectively rated and self-insured programs; provided, however that no such program shall provide coverage for directors and officers which is prohibited by applicable law. The Corporation's indemnity of any person who is an Indemnified Person shall be reduced by any amounts such person may collect with respect to such liability (1) under any policy of insurance purchased and maintained on his or her behalf by the Corporation or (2) from any other entity or enterprise served by such person.
- f. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses and all other benefits provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article SIXTH shall continue as to a person who has ceased to serve in the capacity in respect of which such person was an Indemnified Person and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such person.
- g. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article SIXTH shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which any Indemnified Person may be entitled under any statute or court order or any Bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.
- h. The Board of Directors shall have the power and authority to make, alter, amend and repeal such procedural rules and regulations relating to indemnification and the advancement of expenses as it, in its discretion, may deem necessary or expedient in order to carry out the purposes of this Article SIXTH, such rules and regulations, if any, to be set forth in the Bylaws of the Corporation or in a resolution of the Board of Directors.

For purposes of this Article SEVENTH, each share of the Voting Stock shall have the number of votes granted to it pursuant to Article THIRD, paragraph (c) of these Articles. - a. the highest per-share price (including any brokerage commissions, transfer taxes, and soliciting dealers' fees) paid by the Interested Shareholder for any shares of such class of Voting Stock acquired by it within the two-year period immediately prior to the Announcement Date or in the transaction by which it became an Interested Shareholder, whichever is higher;

1. Form of Payment. The consideration to be received by holders of a particular class of outstanding Voting Stock (including Common Stock) shall be in cash or in the same form as the Interested Shareholder has previously paid for shares of such class of Voting Stock. If the Interested Shareholder has paid for shares of any class of Voting Stock with varying forms of consideration, the form of consideration for such class of Voting Stock shall be either in cash or in the same form used to acquire the largest number of shares of such class of Voting Stock previously acquired by it.
 2. Changes in Corporation Dividends. After the Interested Shareholder has become an Interested Shareholder and prior to the consummation of a Business Combination,
 - a. the Corporation shall have continued to declare and pay at the regular date therefor the full quarterly dividends (whether or not cumulative) on the outstanding Preferred Stock, except as otherwise approved by a majority of the Continuing Directors; and
 - b. the Corporation shall have continued to declare and pay at the regular date the established dividends on the Common Stock (except as necessary to reflect any subdivision of the Common Stock and as otherwise approved by a majority of the Continuing Directors) and the Corporation shall have declared and paid an increase in such established rate of dividends as necessary to reflect any reclassification (including any reverse stock split), recapitalization, reorganization, or any similar transaction which has the effect of reducing the number of outstanding shares of Common Stock, except as otherwise approved by a majority of the Continuing Directors.
 3. No Changes in Stock Interests. The Interested Shareholder shall not have become the beneficial owner of any additional shares of Voting Stock except as part of the transaction which results in such Interested Shareholder becoming an Interested Shareholder.
 4. Financial Transactions with the Corporation. After becoming an Interested Shareholder, the Interested Shareholder shall not have received the benefit, directly or indirectly (except proportionately as a shareholder), of any loans, advances, guarantees, pledges, or other financial assistance, or any tax credits or other tax advantages provided by the Corporation, whether in anticipation of, or in connection with, such Business Combination or otherwise.
 5. Shareholders Provided with Information. The Corporation or the Interested Shareholder shall have mailed to shareholders of the Corporation at least 30 days prior to the consummation of such Business Combination a proxy or information statement (whether or not such proxy or information statement is required to be mailed pursuant to law or otherwise) describing the proposed Business Combination and complying with the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the rules and regulations thereunder (or any subsequent provisions replacing such Act, rules, or regulations).
- F. No Effect on Fiduciary Obligations of Interested Shareholders. Nothing contained in this Article SEVENTH shall be construed to relieve any Interested Shareholder from any fiduciary obligation imposed by law.
- G. Amendment or Repeal of Article SEVENTH. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, these Articles, or the Bylaws of the Corporation, the affirmative vote of not less than 80% of the Voting Stock, voting together as one class, shall be required to amend, alter, change, repeal, or adopt any provision inconsistent with this Article SEVENTH.
