Standard Chartered Acquires American Express Bank's Business in Bangladesh

Standard Chartered is pleased to announce that it has signed an Agreement to acquire the commercial banking business of American Express Bank Limited in Bangladesh. The purchase is conditional on regulatory approval, and should be completed within the next few weeks. The purchase consideration will be approximately USD24.5million, payable in cash.

Osman Morad, Chief Executive Officer of Standard Chartered Bank, Bangladesh, commented:

'We are very pleased to have reached agreement on this purchase. The acquisition further consolidates our position as the oldest and largest foreign bank in Bangladesh and we look forward to serving American Express Bank's customers with our wide range of products and services. This year Standard Chartered proudly celebrates 100 years in Bangladesh, and this significant investment underscores our continued and increasing commitment to the country.'

Qamar Hussain, Chief Executive Officer of American Express Bank, Bangladesh, said:

'We are pleased to have reached this agreement with Standard Chartered Bank. The agreement fits our strategic objective of exiting local corporate banking and focusing on serving the correspondent banking needs of financial institutions in Bangladesh and around the world. At the same time, we believe that our local commercial bank clients will be well served by a bank with the history and reputation of Standard Chartered Bank'.
