

STAMPS.COM ANNOUNCES INTEGRATION WITH WEBGILITY ECOMMERCE ORDER MANAGEMENT SOFTWARE

LOS ANGELES - August 25, 2009 - Stamps.com® (Nasdaq:STMP), the leading provider of postage online, today announced that its PC Postage® Version 8.0 has been fully integrated into Webgility's eCommerceConnector (eCC) software solution. This partnership provides users of Webgility's software with advanced package shipping management capabilities to enhance their already robust feature set of web order fulfillment, QuickBooks integration and inventory management tools.

This integration extends eCC's already advanced order management capabilities to allow the user to print all classes of USPS® postage, validate delivery addresses and receive postage discounts, all without leaving eCC. Users can also access special services such as free delivery confirmation, discounted insurance and online postage refunds.

"We are pleased to offer the advanced postage printing features available in PC Postage to Webgility's customer base," said Stamps.com president and CEO Ken McBride. "We are confident that the combination of PC Postage and eCommerceConnector represent the most robust and feature rich online order management and processing solution available in the industry today."

"We're really excited about this partnership because Stamps.com will not only automate USPS shipment processing and QuickBooks integration but also help our customers save on shipping costs," said Parag Mamnani, CEO Webgility.
