

STAMPS.COM ANNOUNCES INTEGRATION WITH AUCTANE SHIPPING MANAGEMENT SOFTWARE

LOS ANGELES - October 14, 2009 - Stamps.com® (Nasdaq:STMP), the leading provider of postage online and shipping software, today announced that its PC Postage® Version 8.5 has been integrated into the Auctane Shipping Manager® software solution for eBay® Selling Manager users. This compatibility extends Auctane's shipping management capabilities to allow the user to print all classes of USPS® postage, validate delivery addresses and receive postage discounts, all without leaving eBay.com. Users can also access special services such as free delivery confirmation and online postage refunds.

"The combination of PC Postage and Auctane give eBay sellers the tools necessary to decrease order processing time, increase accuracy of shipments and increase overall customer satisfaction," said Stamps.com president and CEO Ken McBride. "This integration represents the most robust and feature rich online shipping management solution available in the industry today."

"We constantly look to partner with world class organizations," said Jason Hodges of Auctane. "Stamps.com represents the industry standard for online postage printing, and we are happy that our customers will be able to use their service in conjunction with ours."
